BARE MYSTERY MURDER LETTER

AMERICANS FREED BY SOVIET

State Department Learns U. S. Citizens Nearing Russian Border

RELIEF WORKERS
ARRIVE AT RIGA

Distribution of Food to Famine Sufferers to Begin Soon, Word

United Press Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Americans who have been held prisoners in Soviet Russia are nearing Jam-burg, near Narva, Estonia, on the Russian border, according to a cable made public today by the state department.

The cable from American representatives in Riga and Reval stated that the prisoners started on their way to the frontier yesterday and that they were due in Jamburg this evening.

RIGA, Aug. 9.—Official word reached here today that six Americans who have been imprisoned in Russia are leaving that country.

The report came to Commissioner Young.

Men who now have their freedom are Captain Emmet Kilpatrick, William Plick, H. J. Lamarc, X. B. Ka-mantiano and Dr. W. B. Estes.

The first detachment of American relief workers, charged with organizing the Russians to distribute supplies, arrived at Reval today and was to proceed here tonight.

FIGHT REVOLVER DUEL IN STREET; BOTH DEAD

WHITESBURG, Ky., Aug. 9.—S. J.
Wright, a policeman, and Alvin Bentley, both of Neon, a small town in the mountains near here, are dead today, the result of a revolver duel on the streets of that village late yesterday.

According to word received here,
the men quarreled over the primary election returns. Both drew pistols and fell after emptying their guns, dying shortly afterward.

BROTHERS QUARREL; ONE IS FATALLY SHOT

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—Ralph and Norman Penrose, said to be the sons of a retired Doylestown farmer, engaged in a quarrel in a boarding house at Elkins Park, near here, which resulted in the shooting and killing of Ralph.

According to witnesses both men entered a room in the boarding house quarreling and some blows were struck. Then suddenly Norman drew a revolver and shot his brother, killing him instantly.

GOLD-BEARING LEDGE

ROUGH AND READY, Aug. 9.—
The discovery of a strong gold-bearing ledge on the ranch of Edward Ross in this section of Nevada county is announced by a party of prospectors from Nevada, headed by Arthur Maule. A large ledge and two stringers were found in a field that has been under cultivation for many years.

Gold quartz has often been turned up by the plow in the field and Ross invited the prospectors to make an investigation, with the result mentioned.

Explorations to learn the extent of the strike are to be conducted.

SACRAMENTO PLANS MODERN WATER FRONT

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 9.—City Manager Clyde L. Seavey and City Engineer Albert Givan are working on a plan for the construction of a modern water front for Sacramento without cost to the taxpayers.

The plans call for the dismantling of the present wharves and docks and the building of fireproof docks, with two stories which will provide a great amount of storage space. It is proposed to raise the money in the form of a bond issue.

BREAKS DISROBBING RECORD
FORT COLLINS, Colo., Aug. 9.— Charles Troxol, farmer, holds local records for fast disrobbing. Troxol's clothes caught in a separator's machinery and in an instant he was in his B. V. D.'s. He walked home clad in wheat stalks.

Packer Control Bill Pass; Veto By Harding Looms, Word

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The packer control bill, a subject of contention in congress for nearly a score of years, was passed by the house today without a record vote and sent to the White House for executive action.

The measure gives the secretary of agriculture broad powers to regulate the meat packing industry.

So far there has been no intimation of the president's stand on the bill. Some claim that it conflicts with his campaign pledge of "less government in business," and may be vetoed.

Solons In Drive to Halt Future Grain Gambling

Agriculture Bloc In Senate Act
To Bring Passage of Farm Relief Bills.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The farmers' program marched on in the senate today.

Having passed the administration bill to put the farmer back in business by giving him a market, the agricultural bloc today turned its attention to putting the grain gamblers out of business.

This, it is hoped to do through two measures:

1—The Capper-Tincher anti-grain gambling bill.

2—An investigation of the alleged efforts of grain gamblers to wreck the farmers co-operative movement.

The first became the senate's unfinished business today.

President Signs Law Giving Help To War Veterans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Sweet bill, providing for reorganization of soldier relief facilities, was signed by President Harding today.

The bill, based on recommendations of Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, creates a veterans' relief bureau out of the federal relief board, the board of vocational training and the public health service.

Charles R. Forbes, of Washington, was named director of the veterans' bureau.

"30" BULLETINS

TOKIO, Aug. 9.—An explosion in the Hinoshima artillery magazine is reported to have killed or injured over 200 persons.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—By strict party vote of 8 to 4, the senate elections committee today gave Senator Newberry, Michigan, a clean bill of health and seated him as a member of the senate.

HAVANA, Ga., Aug. 9.—Fire started on Tybee Island, has destroyed more than fifteen houses and is beyond the control of fire fighting facilities there, according to word received here this afternoon.

BEE CAUSES WRECK

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—William Mitchell, clubman, was attacked by a bumble bee while driving his car. He lost control and drove into a tree.
Mitchell and the bee escaped uninjured.

HARDING AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Deeply tanned and visibly benefited by the twelve days divided between sailing and resting in the New Hampshire hills, President Harding returned today to resume the cares of state.

THE DALLES, Ore., Aug. 9.—Attempting to cross the John Day river on horseback, twenty-two miles east of Kent, Mary and Priscilla O'Sul-li-van, sisters, 21 and 18 years, respectively, were drowned when the animals on which they were riding stepped into a deep hole, unseating the riders, according to word brought here.

It is expected that the vessel's maiden cruise will take place in October, with either Magdalena bay or Honolulu as its destination.

The California carries a complement of 1400 men and 67 officers. About 700 of the enlisted men are Californians, recruited and trained especially for service board the battleship named after and built in their native state.

The California is a sister ship to the Tennessee. It is 624 feet overall, 98-foot beam and 32,000 tons. Its main battery consists of 12 guns, 14-inch, 50-caliber, mounted in four turrets of three guns each. The estimated speed is 21 knots. The California is of practically the same construction as the New Mexico, except that it is a little larger and stronger.

At 1:15 the stars and stripes will be run up to the top of the California's flagmast, the vessel's maiden watch will begin pacing the decks and Captain Ziegmeier will take control of the bridge.

The new battleship will move from her berth for the first time August 20, when she will steam to drydock for final inspection, which will take two weeks. Then she will proceed to San Francisco, where another week will be spent in taking stores aboard.

On September 10 a test voyage of several hundred miles will be made off the Northern California coast.

It is expected that the vessel's
maiden cruise will take place in October, with either Magdalena
bay or Honolulu as its destination.

FEDERAL BUREAU BARES LOSS IN CROPS DUE TO LACK OF RAIN

United Press Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Wheat, corn and potato crops suffered severe declines during the month of July, it was shown today by the bureau of crop estimates of the depart-

The nation's wheat production, estimated by the agriculture department at 757,000,000 bushels showed a drop of 52,000,000 from the estimate of one month ago.

Corn previously forecast at 3,352,- 000,000 bushels today was forecast at only 3,032,000,000 bushels.

Blame Dry Spell.
A shortage of rainfall over the north central states and throughout the west average in Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah, will shorten the crop, the bureau predicted.

The damage to potatoes was characterized by the department as "extreme," the prospects for a "moderate" crop of 377,000,000 bushels, forecast on July 1, having fallen off 61,000,000 bushels in the month.

The spring wheat crop will comprise 213,000,000 bushels, the bureau predicted, and the winter crop 544,- 000,000 bushels.

A forecast previously issued on the basis of reports of conditions on July 1 showed an estimated total production of 809,000,000 bushels with the winter crop at 574,000,000 bushels and the spring crops at 235,000,000 bushels.

Today's forecast was based on a reported average of 66.6 per cent of normal for spring wheat as of August 1 as compared with a condition of 80.8 per cent of normal on July 1.

Gives Crop Forecast.
The forecast production of other important crops and their condition August 1 was given by the crop bureau as follows:

Corn, 3,032,000,000, condition 84.3
per cent.
Oats, 1,137,000,000, condition 64.5
per cent.

Barley, 171,000,000, condition 71.4
per cent.
Rye, 64,000,000, condition not reported.

White potatoes, 316,000,000 bushels,
61.8 per cent.
Sweet potatoes, 114,000,000, 84.5
per cent.

Tobacco, 889,000,000 pounds, 66.6
per cent.
Rice, 3,500,000, 86.5 per cent.

Tame hay, 81,600,000 tons, 82.5 per cent.
Peaches, 31,300,000 bushels, per cent not given.

BODY OF YARDLEY IS FOUND IN RIVER

YUBA CITY, Aug. 9.—The body of George Yardley, half-brother of Frederick Bailey, who was slain on a ranch near Knights Landing Saturday, was found in the Sacramento river, three miles north of there.

Officers traced footprints from the point where Bailey's body was found to the river. They believe Yardley killed him with a piece of pipe found near the body and then drowned himself.

Predicts Prosperity Wave
If Solons Pass Rail Bill

By L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Jobs for 1,000,000 idle men will be provided if congress passes the administration's railroad credits bill, Eugene Meyer, head of the war finance corporation, declared today, before the senate interstate commerce committee in opening hearings on the bill.

It would put 200,000 men immediately at work making railroad equipment, he said, and by creating a great demand for fuel and other materials would gradually result in re-opening of industries at present closed or operating on a reduced basis.

Interwoven with the bill's effect on unemployment would be, Meyer said:

1—Improvement of the market for farm products.
2—Releasing of "frozen credit" in great amounts for the help of general business.

3—Advancing of the time when railroad rates can be reduced.

4—Increases in government revenues by reason of an increase in general business.

SHERIFF READY TO SERVE WARRANTS ON ACCUSED EXECUTIVE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 9.— Governor Small today agreed to submit to arrest here on charges of misuse of large sums of state money. The sheriff went into conference with the governor after waiting for several hours outside the executive's office. On emerging from Small's office the sheriff said: "The governor has agreed to meet me at the executive mansion at 5 p. m. and submit to arrest."

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 9.— Sheriff Henry Mester, armed with warrants charging Governor Len. Small with embezzlement, played watch dog outside the governor's office today.

Going to the capitol for a showdown with the indicted executive, Mester stationed himself outside Small's door and waited for the governor to appear.

With Mester were two Springfield policemen and a handful of deputies.

"We have extended every possible courtesy to the governor and now we will take him — by force if necessary," the sheriff said.

In the event of Small's arrest the executive offices may move to the Sangamon county jail.

This became probable when it became known that Governor Small was determined to go to jail rather than surrender and give bonds.

Small, who is now spending his second day at the capitol since Judge Smith ordered warrants served two weeks ago, insisted today that he was not subject to arrest and threatened to bring suit against Sheriff Mester's bondsmen in case he was molested.

It is understood the bondsmen of Sheriff Mester, who include Richard Sullivan, political boss of Sangamon county, have held a consultation and decided to risk the $10,000 bond by advising Mester to make the arrest.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—In response to requests from San Francisco, Los Angeles and other Pacific coast cities, that some of the disarmament conference sessions deal with Pacific problems held there, Representative Kahn, Republican, California, said he was advised by Secretary Hughes that it is proposed to hold all sessions in Washing-

Representative Kahn said Mr.
Hughes' program was positive and would preclude any meetings elsewhere.

The city of Marysville will hold an election on the question of voting bonds for the purchase.

PASSENGERS ARE SENT TO SHORE
AS STEAMER IN DANGER

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 9.—Latest radio dispatches here say crew of stranded steamer San Jose is trying to move her from San Pablo reef under her own power.

The U. S. destroyer Farquhar, en route, cannot reach the scene until late tonight, according to eleventh naval district headquarters. Former calculation setting her arrival time at noon today was incorrect, it is announced.

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—The sixty-six passengers of the Pacific mail steamer San Jose were being landed today on the Lower California coast, according to late advices to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, marine department.

The San Jose went to San Pablo reef yesterday while en route from Balboa, Canal zone, to San Francisco. She carried a heavy general cargo, 66 passengers and a crew of 33.

According to the meager advices received here this morning, the vessel started to shift her position on the reef and was evidently in danger of breaking up or sinking.

Crew Moving Cargo
In an effort to lighten the ship and keep her afloat, the cargo was being jettisoned from the lower hold, the advices here said.

It was believed here that the passengers were ordered ashore in small boats but that the crew will remain aboard awaiting the arrival of relief ships which probably cannot reach the scene before tomorrow morning.

Shipping men pointed out that the situation with the San Jose is not much different than that of the steamer Alaska, wrecked at Blunt's reef, California, Saturday night, and that the San Jose may be in danger of slipping from the reef and sinking as did the Alaska.

Asuncion island, a tiny spot in the ocean just off the Lower California shore, consists of about thirty acres. San Pablo reef is on the mainland just north of Asuncion bay, near by. Shipping men, who are familiar with that district, expressed the belief today that the grounded ship is on the mainland rather than the island.

Asuncion island and San Pablo reef are in latitude 27, approximately 350 miles south of San Diego.

Beauty Holds To First Story Of Murder In U. P. Interview

By FRANK H. BARTHOLOMEW,
United Press Staff Correspondent
(Copyright 1921, United Press.)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.— Madalynne Obenchain related her story of the "midnight murder" to the United Press today.

The tall, beautiful divorcee spoke quietly and directly in the first interview she was permitted to grant newspapermen since her arrest early Saturday morning, following the mysterious killing of her lover, John Belton Kennedy.

She repeated, almost word for word, the original story which she told the police.

On one point only she maintained silence. Madalynne would not speak of Arthur Burch.

Pressed for information as to her relationship with Burch, she answered briefly and evasively.
"At what time did you see Burch previous to the shooting?"

she was asked.

miles north of Blunt's reef, off Humboldt county, having broken its propeller.

The vessel is not in danger, according to a radio received by the Merchants' exchange. The mishap to the Multnomah occurred near where the Alaska went down.

The steamer Quinault, en route from Tacoma to San Pedro, which is reported to be sixty-eight miles north of Blunt's reef, is proceeding to the disabled Multnomah's aid, according to a radio.

The Multnomah is a vessel of 969 tons of the steam schooner type. She is carrying a crew of twenty and about twenty passengers, according to reports.

HERE'S LIST OF CREW ON WRECKED VESSEL

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—No passenger list of the passenger steamer San Jose, wrecked on San Pablo reef, Asuncion Island, off the coast of Lower California, is available at the local offices of the Pacific Mail Steamship company.

Because of the lack of cable communication between the West Coast of the United States and Panama the passenger list is not ordinarily received here until the vessel has reached the California coast, when it is wirelessly in by the ship's radio.

A list of the ship's officers was given out by the company offices here as follows:

Captain C. Zastrow, San Rafael, Cal. I. W. Lundquist, first officer, Mill Valley, Cal. W. C. Rowley, chief engineer, Alameda, Cal. William R. James, purser; J. A. McGary, surgeon; T. J. Sullivan, freight clerk; B. M. Freeman, storekeeper; James Guinnans, chief steward; Mrs. E. E. Leonard, stewardess; G. Z. Zittis, second officer; R. J. Tierney, third officer; A. A. Vellekoop, first assistant engineer; James A. McDonald, third assistant engineer, all of San Francisco.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—A resolution asserting that an organization was being formed in Los Angeles "to take the law into its own hands" and petitioning for the adoption of an ordinance prohibiting men from parading in masks and hoods, or disguises of any sort, was presented to the city council by the Los Angeles colored forum, representing negro citizens.

The council referred the application to the welfare committee of the council.

BIG EASTERN GRAPE

CLOVERDALE, Sonoma Co., Aug. 9.—A. Shostak has arranged with San Francisco firms to handle a large consignment of grapes, composed of 400 cars, for Eastern shipments. Shostak also expects to dry several hundred tons at his drying plant in this city.

The people with whom he is dealing have three wineries and will be able to handle the grapes regardless of car shortage or rains, this preventing any loss by damage.

MINES TO REOPEN

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 9.—Commercial coal mines of the state, closed by strikes on March 31, will be reopened immediately on an open shop basis, operators indicated tonight, while representatives of the United Mine Workers announced they would refuse to arbitrate with employers on the basis of reduced wages at present. The operators resumed their meeting today, but it was said the operators were agreed that they would not deviate from the Allport arbitration commission's report, which recommended wage cuts averaging 20 per cent, from 3 to 4 per cent below the proposed reductions that caused the strike.

BARE NEW NOTE OF WOMAN IN

pite the apparently rising tide of circumstantial evidence.

Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, who figures as "the woman in the case," was almost completely unstrung, however, and was threatened with total collapse.

She was said to have fainted yesterday behind the locked doors of the district attorney's office, when confronted with the alleged one of her former flames of Northwestern university days.

Police had in their possession today a document purported to be a diary of Madalynne Obenchain.

Entries for a week prior to the murder contained many references to John Belton Kennedy, whom Madalynne admits was her "great love."

An entry in the alleged diary dated two days before the tragedy, however, carries a brief comment, allegedly by Madalynne, to the effect that an ending of her affair with Kennedy would probably be for the best.

EVANSTON FOLK LOYAL TO MURDER SUSPECTS

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 9.—Another story has been written around Main street.

The first was penned by Sinclair Lewis, who later disclosed that this Northwestern university town was the scene of his popular novel "Main Street" and that Evanstonians were his characters.

The latest has been written in the police records of Los Angeles and deals again with Evanston folks. Residents of this Methodist college town were indignant when they learned Lewis had "written them up" in a book. They are astounded today to know names of their best people have been recorded in official murder records.

Lived Happy Lives

The principal of Lewis's story stayed in Main street and, eventually, lived happily ever after.

Characters of the new story left Main street and:

Out in Los Angeles, J. Beldon Kennedy was murdered from ambush. With him was Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, his fiancée and university.

Madalynne is the former wife of Ralph Obenchain, prominent attorney, who was president of the senior law class when their college romance started.

Arthur Cortney Burch, son of a retired minister and Northwestern university professor and chum of both Obenchain and his former wife, is held in connection with Kennedy's death.

"Yes," said the scholarly Reverend William A. Burch, "I believe my boy is innocent. My son a murderer? I can't believe it. Yes, we are going to aid our boy all we can."

Mrs. Ida Shotwell, motherly and genial soul who keeps a college house on Main street which is lined with beautiful trees, came to the door wiping her hands on a splinter-clean apron.

Tells of Romance

"My heart aches for poor Madalynne," she said. "Yes, she lived here with me. I can still see Madalynne and Ralph coming from the campus, Ralph carrying the books and Madalynne tossing her pretty head."

"Oh, yes, I know Art Burch very well. I saw him in the newspaper stories about him can't be true. Art was attentive to Madalynne for a while, but then Ralph came along."

If dignified and almost haughty Main street talked in the vernacular it would say "Ralph Obenchain was a good sport and always a game loser."

Main street's estimate is borne out now.

Everything awaits the closing chapter of the new Main street.

CHICAGO INQUIRY BLOW TO SHOTGUN CLUE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Investigation here today by detectives weakened the case against Arthur C. Burch, held in Los Angeles in connection with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy.

One of the strongest points against Burch, Los Angeles authorities stated, was the finding on Burch's person of a receipt for a shotgun at the store of Von Lengerke and Antoine here.

Probe here shows the "receipt" was a ticket for a gun Burch left there to be repaired but never called for. He was to call for it February 1.

Search of the company's books were made, however, to determine whether Burch had any other transactions with the store.

CHARGES "THIRD DEGREE" GIVEN GIRL IN DEATH UROBE.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—Madalynne Obenchain was given "the dreaded 'third degree'" in an effort to wring from her a confession of complicity in the murder of John Belton Kennedy, the young woman's mother declared today.

"My daughter is being persecuted in an effort to obtain a 'confession,'" she said.

"You'd better talk fast, young lady," they told her. "You know what we did to Mrs. Peete. We held hot irons in front of her eyes."

Mrs. Louise Peete, who is in the same jail corridor as Madalynne, is under conviction for the murder of Jacob C. Denton, wealthy mining man.

"When they threatened her, and talked of what they did to Mrs. Peete, Madalynne refused to say anything at all," the accused girl's gray-haired little mother, Mrs. Emma E. Smart, continued. "They were forced to change their tactics before Madalynne would talk to them."

Mrs. Smart said that the sheriff's men were responsible for the alleged third degree, but that officials at the jail had been "very kind."

Madalynne is still held incommunicado.

ONLY FUNCTION
IS SERVICE

That the function of an automobile club can be expressed in one word—service—was declared today at the Rotary club's weekly luncheon by Carl McStay of the Automobile Club of Southern California, the greatest automobile club in existence.

McStay's address was the culmination of a meeting replete in good things. Nearly every Rotarian was present, together with numerous guests. Several Rotarians from Anaheim and Long Beach were on hand and added to the good fellowship of the occasion. Announcements concerning a tri-club picnic to be held at the county park by the Rotary clubs of Long Beach, Anaheim and Santa Ana Aug. 18 were made.

Rowland Chairman

Fred C. Rowland was chairman for the day, Vice-President C. H. Chapman opening the meeting in place of President W. H. Spurgeon, who is in San Francisco.

Three Boy Scouts were on the program. Jack Langley, accompanied by Russell Rowland, with violin solos, and Bobby Gilbert, with some new Rotary songs.

McStay in opening his address read from the articles of incorporation of the auto club he represents. The club is organized to handle any and all matters that an association can handle for its members. The club has many departments.

Much Insurance

The insurance department alone wrote 51,834 policies the past year and saved its members $280,000 in comparison to rates charged by old line companies, which have lower rates here than in most states.

The auto club has a membership of 57,483 in thirteen southern counties. It employs 418 men and women and has 22 branch offices, including those at Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton. This county has two advisory members, D. Eymann Huff and W. L. Benchley.

"Without going into the state highway controversy," said McStay, "let me say that this club has been taking the front rank in building highways since 1900, and it seems only proper for it to take a great interest in the maintenance of highways."

IDAHO-MARYLAND MINE TO BE RE-OPENED

GRASS VALLEY, Aug. 9.—That the Idaho-Maryland mine here will soon definitely be reopened, the producing class is indicated by the announcement that the canyon shaft has been unwatered below the 2000 level and that the famous ledge is being explored.

The ledge carries free gold, and according to current reports small strike of bonanza ore was made soon after the ledge was recovered.

The ledge is to be followed into virgin territory to the southwest and extensive cross-cutting in quest of pay-shoots will be made.

The Idaho-Maryland, Eureka, Union Hill and several adjacent properties were acquired two years ago by the Bulley Wells interests, and reopening through the Idaho shaft has since been under way.

CALIFORNIA IS SHIFTED BY TUGS

VALLEJO, Aug. 9.—The battleship California has been swung around again in the Mare Island straits and moored at the sea wall near the yard's gate. The yard's others, performed the task in less than thirty minutes. The ship was swung around on two occasions, but the yard tugs were not powerful enough to handle the vessel after the hawsers attached to the sea wall parted, and the vessel was moored near dock No. 2 until aid could arrive.

City and County

Miss Viola Hill, who is much in demand at women's assemblies since her return from China, where she has been engaged in missionary work for the past six years, left for Los Angeles this morning to remain for several days. She is to attend to business affairs in connection with the missionary school at Ningpo, where she taught, and is scheduled to speak at South Park next Friday. While in the city she will be the guest of friends.

Jackson Kuhn is still at the head of the list in The Register's Bicycle Campaign. In a few days more, at the rate he is going, he will ride home a new Indian bike, the best $65 bicycle the Indian people make. There are several others who are doing well and the chances are they will get bicycles too, but all the solicitors will have some cash coming to them, whether they earn a bicycle or not. The campaign will end September 1.

Plans were being made at Huntington Beach today for the swimming race around the pier there Sunday in which six women aquatic stars will compete for the medal to be awarded by the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce. Those who will participate, it is announced, are Thelma Darby, Helen Vernon, Thelma Finn, Clarita Hunsberger, Bobbie Middelmass and Thelma Hall. Exhibitions in the plunge will precede the surf race.

E. J. Eaton, West Orange rancher, formerly of Santa Ana, is making preparations for a trip that will take him to Chicago and to his old home at Maquoketa, Ia. He is also awaiting word from his son, Walter J. Eaton, a mining engineer at Santa Eulalia, Chihuahua, Mex., so that he may complete getting a passport for a visit with him. His son has sent word that he expects to be transferred to another mine and is unable yet to say which mine it will be.

The old Santa Ana fire department bell took up its duties at its new location today—atop the new fire station on Sycamore street, between Second and Third. Promptly at 12 o'clock noon it gave forth two loud clangs, as has been its custom for many years. The city's new fire station will soon be ready for occupancy.

Apparently drugged, minus his clothing and bearing evidences that he had been roughly handled, Norman Reid, former Fullerton man who disappeared mysteriously a month ago in Indianapolis, whether he had gone to take up a position, was found in a lonely wood near the Indiana city, according to word reaching Fullerton. Jealousy on the part of a person whose position Reid took was believed to have been the reason for the attack.

Should oil operators of the state refuse to confer with government representatives relative to wages, thereby precipitating a general strike of oil workers in California, Orange county members of the Oil Field Workers' local will join in the walk-out, according to a decision reached at a meeting of the local at Brea. The operators propose a cut of 1 a day, effective September 1.

The man who, clad in a "nightie," essayed to climb trees at Anaheim while in an alleged state of inebriety, was E. L. Baker, officers learned when he recovered. Justice J. S. Howard gave Baker a "jolt" of thirty days. Baker is in the county jail.

H. D. Traveller and Son have sold their tire store at Sixth and Main streets to Hess and Sackett, distributors of Oldfield tires for Los Angeles county. H. D. Traveller will act as manager for the new firm. H. H. Traveller is with J. E. Headley, distributor of Paige motor cars.

ANTI-BEER BILL NOW AWAITING HOUSE O. K.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—John Barleycorn's final obituary today awaits the approval of the house, the senate having passed the Campbell-Willis anti-medical beer bill yesterday by a vote of 39 to 20. The outstanding features of the beer bill are:

1—Prohibits use of beer as medicine.
2—Restricts prescription of wine for the sick to one-half pint in ten days.
3—Limits prescription blanks for liquor to 100 in three months.
4—Prohibits importation and manufacture of wines and whisky until the present supply is below non-beverage needs.

Liberal elements of the senate scored a victory when the amendment was adopted making illegal searches a crime punishable by heavy fines and imprisonment. The dry forces fought the amendment to the utmost, giving up only when it seemed possible that the measure would be further held up by continued opposition.

Any federal law enforcement officer who subjects a person on his premises to search without a warrant shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and made liable to a fine of $1000 and one year's imprisonment, according to the provisions of the amendment. The amendment also provides punishment of $10,000 and five years in jail for any person found guilty of posing as an enforcement agent and so "violating the constitutional rights of private citizens."

$50,000 POST OFFICE FOR ANAHEIM IS O. K'D BY UNCLE SAM

Anaheim is to have a new post office building. Word was received there today from Washington stating that the post office department had given approval of the plans of Frank Eisenhauer for a $50,000 structure to be built at the southwest corner of Clementine and Center streets. The old post office outgrew its quarters. Eisenhauer offered to put up a building. The plans were submitted with the foregoing result. The new building will be of enameled brick. It will have floor space of 3500 square feet, it was stated.

HARBOR LEVY PLAN UNDER ADVISEMENT

After having heard today arguments presented by representatives of the Orange county harbor commission and of the Orange County Harbor association, the board of supervisors took under advisement the proposal that they provide a 10-cent harbor tax levy which would provide $100,000 for further work at the port.

Lew H. Wallace, of Newport Beach, secretary of the harbor commission, told the supervisors that a 10-cent levy should be provided. It was pointed out that the money now being used for harbor improvement was provided by a bond issue and that additional money would undoubtedly be needed in emergency to take care of dockage and other work.

Market News

RECORD BULL DAY SEEN ON EXCHANGE
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The Sun's financial review this afternoon said: Trading was even more restricted in today's extremely dull market in stocks than in Monday's session. It was, in fact, the lightest day's business this year and the lightest since mid-summer of 1920.

Steel slipped back under 74 and so it was with most of the industrial list. The rails had presented the firmest front up to this time but they, too, were disposed to give ground in a measure. Bonds were relatively active and for the most part steady to firm.

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The stock market opened listlessly today with a generally higher trend throughout the day. U. S. Steel was unchanged at the opening, 74 1/2. Famous Players featured the specialties when it opened up 5-8 at 51 1/2. The stock was a large short interest in the market and in United Fruit as well. The latter made an early high at 105 1/2, up 1-2. Balle acted better with Northern Pacific up 1-2 at 76 1/2. Despite a satisfactory earnings statement, American Locomotive was one point off at 84 1/2.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE
CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Grain prices went higher on the Chicago Board of Trade because of the tendency on the part of producers to hold back some of their crops, even though the most urgent of this year's crop has been marketed. Appeals over the world to feed some of the starving peoples of Europe also had a tendency to boost the prices. Provisions closed lower.

September wheat opened at 122 3/4, up 3-4 and closed up 1-2. December wheat opened up 1 cent at 126 and closed another cent higher. September corn opened up 1-2 at 57-5-8 and closed up 1-4. December corn opened at 57 3/4, up 3-4, and closed 1-8 higher.

September oats opened up 1-8, at 37 and closed up 1-8. December oats opened at 40, unchanged and closed 3-8 cents higher.

TRUCK BODY TO BACK NEW LAW. SOLONS TOLD

Representatives of the Orange Belt Truckmen's association and several truck dealers appeared before the board of supervisors today and pledged their support to the board in abiding by whatever rules may be incorporated in an ordinance regulating the loads of trucks and trailers. No definite action was taken by the board, the supervisors agreeing that it would be better for them to again confer with the committeemen of Riverside and San Bernardino counties with a view of deciding on a uniform ordinance.

The ordinance now pending the action of the supervisors places a load limit of 23,000 pounds gross on a single truck and 22,000 pounds net for a truck and one or two trailers.

One representative of the truckmen's association speaking before the supervisors stated that a 2 1/2 ton truck heavily loaded undoubtedly caused more damage to the highways than a heavy truck, provided the former were operated at a high rate of speed.

Another said that whipping trailers cause more damage than anything else. Other probable causes of damage to the highways were heard and several suggestions were offered for the consideration of the supervisors.

The principal objection raised today by the truckmen is against the regulation in the proposed ordinance which limits every truck to carrying overload of 50 per cent beyond the manufacturer's rating.

FARM BUREAU HEADS OPEN MEETING HERE

The success which attended the efforts of the investigating committee of the Orange county farm bureau in regard to the establishment of a new office, that of secretary-manager of the farm bureau, was to be explained to the members of the board of directors at their monthly meeting at the farm bureau office this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Preliminary to the meeting, the committee, whose members were appointed by President W. M. Belding at the July meeting of the board, and who are Murray Home, Yarnia Linda, E. E. Campbell, Orange and I. L. Marchant, Tustin, met in executive session together with several members who have aided them in their work, and got the collected data in readiness to present to the board.

Action was expected to be taken on the means of financing the new department of the farm bureau which resulted from the petition presented by the woman members in session at the July meeting. At that time it was decided to establish a farm home department where a competent advisor might be obtained to aid the women along the lines of home duties and management as the men are aided along the lines of their farm work.

Plans were to be discussed also for attendance at the regional meeting to be held next Saturday in Los Angeles, and which it is expected will call out many Orange county ranchers and growers.

DAY OF SILK SHIRT OVER, SAY DEALERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 9. — The fancy silk shirt, sport sock and loud expensive cravatettes are due to give way to cotton, hile and plain knitted goods because men are slashing their clothing bills, haberdashers told the Board of Review here when questioned about their personal property taxes.

"Most of the dealers say that the value of their stocks is decreasing because the public is demanding a cheaper grade of goods," said a member of the board. "Instead of silk shirts, the public is buying cotton ones; plain socks are bought in preference to fancy ones."

"One haberdashery reported a shrinkage of stock from $25,000 to $5000 in less than a year."

Feather-tipped shoes are the latest in Parisian styles.

TELLEGEN HINTS
HE MAY RETURN TO GERALDINE

Copyright 1927, by The United Press
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Lou Tellegen, actor-husband of Geraldine Farrar, today told his story of the collapse of his matrimonial bliss.

The break between himself and his prima donna wife came "like a bolt from the clear sky," he told the United Press in the first interview he has given since Miss Farrar locked him from their apartment and he gave notice that he intended to sue for separation.

Tellegen declared he had no idea why his wife had locked him out and intimated, from his tone, that there was still a possibility of reconciliation.

Says He's Insulted
"I cannot discuss the nature of the complaint my lawyers have drawn," he said. "It will speak for itself when filed—if such a step is decided upon."

The "lockout" was adding insult to injury, Tellegen said, but refused to state what the "injury" might have been.

Tellegen said he had been notified that Miss Farrar had sent his clothing to a storage warehouse. He had no comment.

"I recently returned to New York after ten months on the road," Tellegen said. "I went to Long Beach to rest, fish and study my next play."

"My wife visited me there twice, the last time about July 18. We spent the afternoon together and I planned to return to my home in New York during the next few days."

Surprise to Him
"Before I could do this, a letter was delivered to me, directing me not to return home and cautioning me not to approach my wife. This came like a bolt from a clear sky."

"Surprised, I nevertheless went to my home to find myself locked out."

"I have no idea why this drastic action was taken. But having been humiliated and embarrassed, it was necessary to take immediate action,

QUIZ HUSBAND HELD
AS WIFE MURDERER

United Press Leased Wire
SEATTLE, Aug. 9.—It was definitely established today that the body found in the trunk in Lake Union yesterday was that of Mrs. Kate Mahoney.

Following the finding of the body, which the authorities believe is the last necessary link in the chain of evidence which they have woven around James E. Mahoney, her husband, who is charged with her murder, Mahoney was closeted with detectives today in a "star chamber" session.

They hope to be able to break down the prisoner and wring from him a complete confession, they announced.

Professor William H. Dehn, chemist at the University of Washington, is making an analysis of the contents of Mrs. Mahoney's stomach to determine whether, as the authorities believe, she was doped with chloral before being beaten to death with a hammer and stuffed into the murder trunk, which was later sunk to the bottom of the lake.

The finding of the body in the trunk follows a persistent search that has led over weeks. The authorities while charging Mahoney with the crime, were unwilling to take the case to trial because of the fact that "the corpus delicti"—the fact that a murder had been committed could not be proved by actual evidence of the identified body.

IRELAND PEACE NOW UP TO ULSTER, VIEW

United Press Leased Wire
LONDON, Aug. 9.—An Irish peace agreement lay solely with Sinn Fein and Ulster today.

Great Britain removed all doubt of her intention to give the Irish every opportunity to act on her peace proposals when she released all Dail Eireann members who have been in jail. There was obvious relief in British newspapers today over the prompt action of the government in ordering the release of John J. Mc-Keown, convicted member of the Irish parliament, whose detention threatened to upset all the negotiations.

Dublin correspondents of those papers declared that the Dail Eireann on August 16 will follow the Sinn Fein cabinet in approving the proposals.

Ulster's part in the settlement remained unchanged today. There was no indication that "President" De Valera and Premier Craig of Ulster have met and agreed and still in spite of this lack of agreement Sinn Fein was proceeding with peace plans.

CAN DRESS WELL
ON $5000 YEARLY

NEW YORK, Aug. 9. — If friend husband can manage to scrape together $5000 a year that's all his wife needs to be well dressed, according to Mrs. William P. Burden, called the "best dressed woman in Newport." She was asked about the figures set years ago as necessary for a member of society who would keep up all the fashions.

"These figures are all too high,"
she said. "I believe $5000 is sufficient for any woman to dress well on."

Asked how many gowns she believed necessary during the twelve months, Mrs. Burden said:

"That depends on how many you have left from last year. I am wearing them as long as I can—wearing them out."

Miss Elizabeth Jordan and Mr. Bion Purington Wed At Pretty Home Ceremony

The home of Mrs. N. V. Jordan, 416 Mortimer street, was the scene of a pretty wedding, Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when her daughter, Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr. Bion O. Purington. Mr. Harry Garstang played the Bridal Chorus, from Lohengrin, as the couple entered unattended, and took their places beneath a bower of asparagus fern, pink antigonon and dahlias, the double ring ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. A. Stevenson, before about forty relatives and close friends of the bride and groom.

The bride wore an exquisite frock of beaded and embroidered white crepe de chine and a filmy veil of white bobonet, that had been worn by her great-great-grandmother more than one hundred years ago. A coronet of orange blossoms completed the pretty picture.

While the refreshments were being served the happy pair amid a shower of rice and rose petals departed on their honeymoon trip to the Grand Canyon via the Santa Fe.

Mr. and Mrs. Purington are both graduates of the Santa Ana high school, and are both popular members of the younger set here, all of whom wish them much happiness.

Members of Fun Club Celebrate Birthdays Of Two Members

The "Jolly Bunch," of Santa Ana, were hosts and hostesses on Sunday evening, at a delightful birthday party given in honor of Mr. Ivie Stein and Miss Elizabeth Sirinsky, at the home of Miss Gertrude Karp, 1417 North Main street.

The evening was spent in dancing and numerous games were played. Later delightful refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stein, Mr. and Mrs. L. Traub, Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz of Los Angeles, Mrs. Green of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. I. Troub, Mr. and Mrs. M. Karp, and Mrs. Serinsky, the Misses Esther Tobias, Marian Green, Ethyle Pearson, Lilian Singer, Dorothy Miloro, Elizabeth Sirinsky, Frances Sorinsky and Gertrude Karp. Messrs. Ivie Stein, Jay Morein, Sol Morein, A. Raffee, M. Hackle, Sylvan Karp, Sam Lutz, Harry Grant, Sam Grant, Al Fogel, Paul Moss and Sol Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Karp and Mr. and Mrs. L. Troub acted as chaperones for the young people.

Sylvester-Johnson Nuptials Have Unique Setting On Beautiful Balboa Island

At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, just as the sun was spreading its last golden rays over the bay and crowning hills, a lovely wedding took place at the Balboa island home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sylvester, of Santa Ana, when their daughter, Helen Eva, was united in marriage with Mr. Russell H. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson, also of this city.

The ceremony took place on the large porch of the island cottage, which had been transformed into a veritable bower of palms and ferns, forming a background for the many baskets and howls of immense varicolored dahlias.

One corner of the porch was canopied with ferns and dahlias, where, as the familiar strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" were heard, the couple took their places, and the pretty Methodist ring service was read by the Rev. Dr. James Allen Geissinger, pastor of the Methodist White Temple, of Anaheim, who with his family is a neighbor of the Sylvesters on the island.

From the porch, which is enclosed at both ends, stretched an immense canopy beneath which the guests were assembled to witness the ceremony.

The bride wore a smart white traveling suit with a bright tomato-colored feather hat, and a lovely corsage of Cecil Brunner rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a delicious buffet lunch was served.

After the bride tossed her pretty corsage, which was caught by Miss Marie May, the happy couple left for parts unknown, and will be at home after August 15 at their new home in the Colonial apartments.

The bride and groom are both well known in Santa Ana, having attended the local high school where the bride graduated with the class of 1919. She is also well known as a soloist, her pleasing voice having often delighted in many local affairs.

The groom is connected in business with the well-known firm of Roehm and Sylvester, of which the bride's father is a member.

The guests, who were all close friends or relatives of the bride and groom, included the following: Messrs. and Mesdames George Paul, Jr., George Paul, Sr., A. W. Getchell, E. R. Roehm, H. E. Johnson, William R. Sylvester, I. C. Gold, Edward Walker, Fred Marsile, H. Holmes, C. Hutchins, C. Noe; Mrs. Murray, William H. James, Belle Golden, Rice, the Misses Pathon, Mark Martin, Louise Plummer, Ann Abbott, Katherine Walker, Margaret Hutchins, Elizabeth Roehm, Marie May; Messrs. A. E. Warren, Everett Cohn, William Johnson, Lory Roehm, George Holmes, Cornish Roehm, George Walker, Edward Holmes, John Sylvester and Master Billy Sylvester.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tedford, 1319 North Broadway have reached home after a three weeks motor trip to Sonoma county where they visited Santa Rosa and other points in that vicinity.

F. Schieler and son, 513 Walnut street, left today for a visit in San Diego.

Mrs. Erika Vermeulen graces the cigar counter at the White Cross drug store after spending a week on Catalina Island. She said she enjoyed her vacation, is not particularly glad to be back so soon, but still remembers the "brand you smoke."

The Rev. P. F. Schrock, pastor of the First Congregational church, and Dr. and Mrs. Huston of Costa Mesa, today for Big Bear Lake where they will enjoy a week's outing.

E. D. Ayers, adjuster with the claims department of the Automobile Club of Southern California, Santa Ana branch, left yesterday with Mrs. Ayers for a vacation week in Yosemite.

Dr. and Mrs. Karl A. Loerch entertained Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hendon, of Phoenix, Ariz., over the week-end. With their guests, they motored to San Diego Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vogt and family, spending a couple of weeks at Lodi.

The Misses Nina and Leona Hart, of Stanwood, Ia., left this morning for their home after several weeks' visit with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Martin White.

Frank White, of Sacramento, is visiting his daughter, Miss Grace White, and sister, Miss Jennie White.

Mrs. Lea Warren attended the state W. C. T. U. official board meeting held yesterday in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Warren, of Santa Monica, are spending their vacation here with relatives and friends. Mr. Warren is agent for the Union Oil company at Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. George Waldvogel, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. George La France and children, of Long Beach, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Amrhein, 125 West Seventeenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davy, of Salem, Ore., who are touring California, have been guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ash and family, 437 South Sycamore street. The families are old-time friends.

Mrs. F. T. Porter, 623 North Birch street, sailed Sunday morning for Portland, to spend six weeks there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kriger, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson, formerly of this city, have returned to their home at Nueva, after spending a few days with Mrs. Thompson's parents here.

Ward Ditchley, former post office clerk here and family, who now live at Riverside, are spending a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. Ditchley's parents at Orange.

L. F. Harvey, post office clerk, is spending part of his vacation at Turlock.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fine and daughters, Charlotte and Cleora, left today for Fresno, where they will make a brief visit with relatives.

Returning today from a short stay at Santa Paula, the Rev. John Oliver and his family plan to leave Thursday for a mountain cabin at Idylwild beyond Hemet, where they will complete their vacation outing.

Miss Anna Nisson, of Los Angeles, was a recent guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Lewis, 611 Lacey street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Mosher, former residents of Grand Rapids, Mich., where Mosher was city treasurer for a period of many years, have, after a survey of the entire Southwest, decided that Santa Ana is the place to make their permanent home, and to that end have just taken possession of the new dwelling they erected at 1424 Spurgeon street. Mrs. Mosher is a cousin of Mrs. C. V. Davis, 1423 Spurgeon street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Scott, of the Santa Ana Art Glass works, have purchased a new Chevrolet touring car, and Mrs. Scott with the three children and her maid, drove yesterday to their cabin, "Ardenale," in the Forest of Arden, near Madam Mojeska's home, to be gone for two weeks or more. Mr. Scott will join the family for the week-ends.

G. C. Chessum, county secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and A. J. Raitt, assistant secretary, who, with their families, have been attending the "Y" summer school at Atascadero, have returned to this city and are once more at "Y" headquarters in the First National Bank building.

Modern Jules Verne Returns From 'Round the World

After a three months' round-the-world tour, Mr. William H. Overshiner says he wouldn't do it again, but wouldn't take anything for what he has seen, and last but not least, is mighty glad to be here in Santa Ana.

Mr. Overshiner, who has been with the government geodetic coast survey in the Philippine islands for the past two and one-half years, will now be stationed on San Francisco bay and will leave for that place, after spending a few weeks here with his mother, Mrs. Alice Overshiner, 601 West Second street, and his father, Mr. Charles D. Overshiner, postmaster.

Mr. Overshiner's trip sounds like a fairy tale, even more, interesting than Jules Verne's "Around the World in Eighty Days," but only a brief resume can be imparted here.

On April 10 he left Hongkong and went to Singapore. From there to Calcutta, and across India by rail to Bombay. From Bombay he went to Port Said by boat and to Venice by boat, thence to gay "Paree" by rail, then on to London, New York and Washington, where he has been since the latter part of June.

Naples won the heart of the traveler, but India came a close second with her famous Buddhist temples that cover acres and are veritably filled with gold and precious stones.

ASSESSMENT GAIN SHOWN AT ANAHEIM

Anaheim's assessment roll for 1921-22 totals $5,354,000, according to report received here today. The figures show exemptions amounting to $164,210, leaving a taxable total of $5,189,790.

This is estimated as a 40 per cent increase over last year's assessment roll, which totaled $3,758,155, and shows the most rapid growth in the history of Anaheim.

The assessment roll is itemized as follows: Real estate, $1,943,495; improvements, $2,341,925; personal property, $904,375. Increase in these items are given as: Real estate, $28,228; improvements, $1,141,980; personal property, $261,440.

Bigger and Better —Our August Fur Sale

---The mere fact that our August Fur Sale means a sizeable reduction may be sufficient reason for attending this great annual event.

---But it's the high quality of the furs, the superior styles and the beautiful workmanship that make a visit to our Store doubly worth while.

Here are Coats, Capes, Stoles, Throws, Scarfs, Chokers, Dolmans, Etc., made up in every desirable style—priced so low that we do not believe such values may be duplicated for some time to come. The thrifty buyer will get the advantage by early attendance.

VIKING LEADS UNCAS IN REGATTA CLASSIC

That both the Viking IV and the Uncas of the Newport Harbor Yacht club finished their race from Balboa to Santa Barbara well up in front yesterday is the word received from the northern city today.

The Viking IV, commanded by Admiral Albert Soland sailed across the finish line ahead of the Uncas under Johnny Bowers and "Doc" Wilcox in the schooner class.

In the sloop class latest reports had the Carrolle commanded by Joseph A. Beck, harbor master at Newport, winner of the race from Balboa with the Joy second.

Unfavorable winds held back the yachts in the long day. The race which started at the same time from all of the yacht clubs in Southern California was expected to be completed early Sunday, but it was not until yesterday that the majority of the craft checked in at the finish.

Yachtmen at Santa Barbara today started on the biggest regatta ever staged in Southern California waters. Speed boats raced this morning and schooners, yaws and sloops were to try out their speed facilities this afternoon.

CLEVELAND CLIMBS BACK TO LEADERSHIP

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—Cleveland took both ends of a double-header from Philadelphia, and by the twin victory regained the lead in the pennant race. The score in the first game was 4 to 3, and in the second game 7 to 6.

The second game went thirteen innings. A decision by Umpire Dineen at the plate in the sixth inning of the first game started a storm of protest by the Athletics and was taken up by the crowd.

Dineen was hissed throughout the remainder of the afternoon. After the last inning of the second game both Dineen and Evans were bombarded with cushions and newspapers as they headed for their dressing rooms.

(First game)
Cleveland 4 8 0
Philadelphia 3 9 0
Cleveland—Coveleskie and O'Neill; Philadelphia, Rommel and Perkins.
(Second game)
Cleveland 7 14 4
Philadelphia 6 16 2
Cleveland—Bagby, Sothern and O'Neill; Philadelphia, Naylor, Keefe, Harris and Perkins.

YANKS-SOX SPLIT.
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—New York lost its hold on first place yesterday by dividing a double-header with Chicago, while Cleveland was taking two games from Philadelphia. The Yankees won the first game, 7 to 0, and the White Sox the other, 5 to 4. Ruth brought his season total of home runs to forty-one by hitting one in each contest. Kerr of the White Sox retired because of a sore arm, after pitching six innings of the second game.
(First game)
Chicago 0 4 1
New York 7 10 0
Chicago—Weineke, Hodge and Lees; New York, Shawkey and Schang.
(Second game)
Chicago 5 9 1
New York 4 7 2
Chicago—Kerr, Faber and Lees; New York, Hoyt and Schang.

RED SOX DOWN TIGERS.
BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Boston won its eighth straight game from Detroit yesterday, 6 to 1. Scott made his first home run of the season inside the grounds, the ball rolling to the center field stand with McInnis on second in the eighth inning.
Detroit 1 8 2
Boston 6 8 0
Detroit—Lemoine and Bassler; Boston, Myers and Ruel.

SENATORS WALLUP BROWNS.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Washington pounded a quartet of St. Louis pitchers yesterday for seventeen hits and won the second game of the series, 16 to 5. Johnson held the visitors safe at all stages.
St. Louis 5 10 4
Washington 16 17 3
St. Louis—Bayne, Koep, Morris, Bunwell and Severell; Washington, Johnson and Picinich.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—With his right hand in a plaster cast, Benny Leonard, lightweight champion was hanging around his home in Harlem today instead of getting his wind right on the road.
The champion, training for his battle with Lew Teller, scheduled for Philadelphia Friday night, struck the solid top of Jack Toland's head and fractured the metacarpal bone in his right hand.

PERSHING MAY COME TO 91ST'S REUNION

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—"Black Jack" Pershing may attend the Ninety-first's reunion, to be held in Los Angeles, September 25 and 26.

A cause dear to the heart of the former head of the American Expeditionary Forces and present chief of staff of the United States army, General John J. Pershing (as he is more formally known) will be advanced by his presence at the get-together of the Wild West division, J. W. Sutphen, one-time aide to the general, points out in a letter of invitation just forwarded to him at Washington.

"We trust you will be present, not only because of the honor it would confer upon us, but also because of the help your presence would be to us in the reorganization of the Ninety-first division as one of the reserve divisions of the Ninth Army Corps," the letter says.

Pershing is endeavoring to get every man who served during war times to join the reserve.

Assembly of the colors and standards of the various units of the division—361st, 362nd, 363rd and 364th Infantry, 346th, 347th and 348th Machine Gun battalions, 316th Engineers and 346th, 347th and 348th Field artillery—at the reunion is planned. They will be presented to General Pershing in what is declared to be one of the prettiest and most impressive military ceremonies there is; a ceremony which never has been performed in this country.

Governor Stephens, of California, once of the 361st Infantry, has also been invited to the reunion. Roy E. Nafziger, general chairman of the gathering, is to invite governors of the six other Western states which sent men into the Ninety-first—Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Nevada.

NATION IS URGED TO PURCHASE SHRINES

CINCINNATI, Aug. 9.—Patriotic organizations have been unusually active in congress this year in connection with the acquisition of several spots of historic association. Of broadest interest is the proposal that congress purchase Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington, says the Times-Star.

Visitors to Washington have been irritated repeatedly by the fact that an admission fee is charged to those who would pay their devotions there. In present circumstances the charge is inevitable.

Women Own Estate.
Patriotic organizations of women are the owners of the estate. They have thrown it open to the public, but must meet expenses from the small fees collected. Under their administration the place is closed to the public on Sundays, when, perhaps, it would attract the largest number of visitors.

If congress were to buy Mount Vernon it could be thrown open to the public without cost and without restraint. Senator Capper has introduced a bill in the senate providing for the purchase and it is his opinion that it will receive favorable consideration.

John J. Kindred, of New York, has sponsored the measure in the house and has coupled it with a proposal to purchase Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson.

Monticello Estate.
The Monticello estate includes 640 acres of land and is now owned by Jefferson M. Levy, formerly a member of congress from New York. It is in Albemarle county, not far from Charlottesville, Va. The buildings were laid out under the personal supervision of Jefferson, whose body is buried on the estate. Representative Harrison of Virginia has introduced a separate bill providing for the purchase of Monticello.

Other Landmarks.
There is also a bill for the purchase of Yorktown, Va., urged by the Daughters of the American Revolution. According to Mrs. Louis Abbott of the District D. A. R., the old fortifications at Yorktown are crumbling and cattle are allowed to graze over them.

The headquarters occupied by Lafayette and Rochambeau demand attention and efforts should be made, she says, to save the vegetation which grows in profusion from seeds and slips brought from England in Colonial days.

RESIGNS POSITION AS HUMANE OFFICER HERE

Offering the excuse that he had no automobile of his own and that he could not give the work the attention that it should be given, Constable Jesse L. Elliott today tendered his resignation as humane officer of this district.

J. C. Joplin, president of the Orange County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, declined to accept Elliott's resignation, at least until another officer can be induced to take up the work.

There are but four districts in the county, the officers being located in Santa Ana, Garden Grove, Anaheim and Fullerton. The board of supervisors recently appropriated $100 to carry on the work of the society.

According to Father Joplin the Orange county society conducts its humane work with less expense than any other county in the state.

Joplin stated that he would urge Constable Carter to accept the position.

CLAIMS ADJUSTMENT BUREAU IS ADDED

Changes were made in the organization of the Automobile club of Orange county, at the recent directors' meeting, which was declared were made essential by business growth. The changes included the creation of a claims adjustment department.

Upon the advice of A. S. Ralph, manager of the club, a claims adjustment department was created and W. L. Tubbs, who has long served the club as assistant manager, was elected to fill the new position. An increase in salary accompanies the new office.

A. J. Ralph now occupies the position of assistant manager, while David Carmichael fills the position of office manager.

Joe Rowley, F. C. Armin and Harry Rowbotham are the field representatives of the club.

The report of the manager showed the business of the club for July to have been the largest in the history of the club, and indications for the future are bright, it is said.

W. L. Tubbs will begin his new work immediately.

"My new position will not be an easy one," said Tubbs, "but I am going to do my best to fill it to the satisfaction of the club. To be an adjuster, one must be perfectly impartial in all cases. It is not policy to permit the club to pay too much, nor is it policy to pay too little and so gain the ill will of any person. I am going to be as diplomatic and tactful in all judgments as possible; and knowing that I have the good wishes and friendship of my fellow employees of the club, assuring their co-operation, I am sure of success."

It requires many years of experience to learn how to know the different kinds of tea.

LAGUNA BEACH

Laguna Heights-Laguna Terrace ---Coast Royal

No doubt you have tired of my advertised prechments in the past four years concerning and exploiting the advantages of Laguna Beach real estate.

I have not wearied because my statements and theories have become tangible and property values have more than doubled in the last two years.

Frankly, this advertisement sounds boastful to me as I read it over.

But it may serve to remind you that the investment possibilities of Laguna Beach even at the new prices are still unequalled.

And, by the way, many holdings are being withdrawn from the open market and choice locations are becoming scarce.

It will be a pleasure to advise you.

GIRL WEEPS AT CHECK CHARGE HEARING HERE

Tipping the scales at 225 pounds, wearing a heavy brushed-wool cloak with a high collar and furling a red carnation, Theresa McNamee, who says her real name is Mrs. Theresa Witte, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Cox today and stood bound over to the superior court on a charge of forgery.

Only two witnesses were heard during the preliminary. They were S. D. Baker, a salesman for the Turner Shoe company, and D. M. Loveridge, proprietor of the New Rossmore hotel.

Baker testified that the defendant came into the store July 7, bought a pair of shoes and gave him a check for $5. He said he immediately sent the check to the bank on which it was drawn and that it was returned marked "no account under the signature."

Plaintiff Shown Check
Loveridge was shown the check, he said that the signature thereon was not his own and that the check was written without his knowledge. His surname is one word while the signature on the check is written "McLover Ridge."

The note was made payable to "Miss McNamee," indorsed the same way and by the boy who took the check to the bank for cash in the event that it was forthcoming.

Mrs. Witte had no attorney. Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley told her that she had the right to question the witnesses but she sobbed that she knew nothing about law and court procedure. Judge Cox advised her to say nothing as anything that she might say might be held against her at the trial in the superior court.

Comes from L. A.

The defendant came from Los Angeles about a month ago and stayed at the New Rossmore hotel one night. She was arrested the next day. She said that she worked as a cashier in Los Angeles, but had been out of work three months prior to coming here.

She said that she had been unable to locate her mother, who is supposed to be living in Los Angeles. She said that she had written her several times since she was incarcerated and that the letters have been returned marked "unclaimed."

She said that neither she nor her mother had sufficient funds to hire an attorney, but that she had an uncle in the East who was wealthy. She did not know his address, however.

Judge Cox told her that the superior court would appoint an attorney to defend her when her case comes up for trial.

FIVE DEER, LION SLAIN BY HUNTERS

With a mountain lion and five deer to their credit, a party of five sportsmen are back today from a hunting trip in Monterey county and Arthur J. McFadden, Santa Ana rancher, probably has the record of being the first man in the county to bag a deer this season.

McFadden, along with Bill Webber, H. C. Sharp and R. A. Alberti of Los Angeles and C. J. Hurst of Covina, left for the north a week ago Saturday. They packed in from King City.

McFadden reports that deer were numerous and estimates that he saw between 30 and 40 bucks on the trip. They were on private property and never more than a mile from the coast. The men caught all the fish they desired and were able to gather plenty of abalone along the coast.

Webber killed the mountain lion, encountering the animal while making his way up over a slope.

LAGUNA ART BODY ELECTS OFFICERS

At a meeting of the Laguna Beach Art association held at the Laguna Beach Art gallery last night, Frank W. Cuprien was elected president of the organization.

Other officers were chosen as follows:

NEW ART BODY WILL OPEN FIRST EXHIBIT AT LAGUNA SATURDAY

With the expectation that at least forty canvases will be included in the display, members of a newly organized art association, known as West Coast Arts, Inc., are bending every effort to getting ready their first exhibition, which will open at the Tanberg galleries, Laguna Beach, next Saturday.

The new organization is composed entirely of women. Among those who will have pictures in the exhibition are several internationally known painters, it was stated.

NEW S. A. GUARDS COMPANY, PLAN OF OFFICERS

Plans for the recruiting of a second national guard company in Santa Ana and Orange county were under way today.

Major Walter P. Story, of Los Angeles, battalion commander, and Major Robert C. Cotton, district inspector, both advocated such action last night when they met with Company F, National Guard of California, at the armory here.

Under the preliminary plans outlined, the Santa Ana armory is to be made a battalion headquarters through the establishment of the second national guard company. In this way, Capt. Arthur E. Koepsel, of Company F, now ranking senior captain in the state, would become major and he would have a first lieutenant as adjutant.

To Get Recruits
Both Captain Koepsel and First Lt. Jesse L. Elliott hope to establish companies of national guardsmen in Anaheim and Fullerton. If this does not prove feasible, a second company will be recruited in Santa Ana and over the county, giving the armory the battalion headquarters.

Both Major Story and Major Cotton addressed members of Company F last night and expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the way the work here is being accomplished. The two officers watched the drill last night and complimented the local unit on the way they followed orders.

Given High Praise
"The showing of Company F at the Yosemite encampment," said Major Story, "proves that you have as good an outfit as any national guard company in the state."

Should the second company be established here, prospects are bright for the formation of a military band also, it is said.

According to Lieutenant Elliott, steps will be taken toward the formation of the second company in the county as soon as officers of Company F have time to arrange plans.

BOYS ON ALERT AS Y CAMP TO OPEN

"Hey, Skinnay, gotcher three dollars yet?"

For three dollars is the price of happiness in Boyville, whose Orange county citizens were preparing today to go in to the Y. M. C. A. camp, which will open tomorrow in Santiago canyon.

"Ever since the beginning of the year when the 'Y' activities for the summer were mapped out, the boys have seemed to be eager for the August short term camps," stated G. S. Chessum, county secretary of the Y. M. C. A. today, as he and A. J. Raitt completed plans for the opening of the first of the three camping periods.

Raitt will be in charge of the group of boys, which bids fair to be a big one, as a request has been received from the Rev. B. W. Marsh of Brea to join the group with the members of a Sunday school class of the Congregational church, all potential "Y" boys.

All boys of good moral character and good physical health, between the ages of 12 and 16, are eligible to attend camp. All that is necessary in the way of equipment being two blankets and a pillow, sweater, bathing suit, Bible, canteen and personal wearing apparel and toilet articles.

The sum of $3 will take care of all necessary expense in the way of camp meals, which will be of generous proportions and wholesome food.

A program of games, sports, swimming and hiking has been arranged much along the line of the camp activities at Catalina when the boys had their two weeks' outing there at Camp Wilkie. While the campfire night will be made one of the most delightful features of the whole camp. The first one of the three will begin tomorrow morning and last until Saturday, August 13. The second of the series will be from August 16 to the 23 and the third and last will be from August 23 to 26.

G. S. Chessum, county secretary of the "Y," is planning on taking his vacation, and tomorrow, with Mrs. Chessum and their two children, Marjorie and Junior, and Miss Adelaide Proctor of Orange, will leave for Mission Bay beach, San Diego, where, according to the statement made today by the active secretary, he expects to go back to the wild completely for a period of two weeks. While Chessum has spent the greater part of the summer in camps and outings of various kinds, it has always been as managing director, with a full sense of responsibility in addition to the actual labor involved, so this two weeks will be devoted to having a thorough rest and outing.

HUSBAND IN PLOT, WIFE'S SUIT CLAIM

What is described as "a large sum of money" in the First National Bank of La Habra was in prospect today of being tied up through court action as the result of an annulment suit filed in Los Angeles by Mary J. Davis against Albert H. Davis, whom she declares to be a blood relation.

Others named in the suit are J. L. Davis, father of Albert H. Davis, and the La Habra bank. The marriage which it is sought to annul took place in Paris, Tex., October 6, 1899, at which time such marriages were prohibited by the laws of Texas.

The couple, who have three children, separated June 15, 1914.

The husband is the proprietor of a chain of grocery stores. He owns oil stock and has patented a device for fumigating trees.

The wife declares that the money in the bank is in the name of Davis' father. The money was transferred to the elder Davis, she says, as part of an alleged plot to keep her from obtaining her share of the community property.

In addition to a restraining order preventing the withdrawal of the money from the bank, the wife seeks an allowance and the custody of the children.

EARLY HEARING ON WALNUTS IS NOW EXPECTED

Because of the necessity of officials of the California Walnut Growers' association returning to the coast soon, it is expected that the senate finance committee will accede to requests that these officials be given an early hearing in connection with the proposal that a tariff of 4 cents a pound be placed on unshelled walnuts, according to word reaching here today from Washington.

Advices from the national capital state that a movement has begun to have the California association's representatives present their testimony before the committee before the end of the week.

UNEARTH PART OF HEROD'S GREAT COURT

JERUSALEM, Aug. 9.—Excavations at Askalon have resulted in the discovery of the famous cloister around the great court built by Herod the Great, which was described in the writings of Josephus as being admirable for its workmanship and grandeur. Statues of Apollo, Venus and Victory, and also a gigantic statue of Herod has been found on the spot.

DEADLINE NEAR ON SCHOOL TAX FUND REQUEST

Attention, school trustees!

Tomorrow is the tenth.

R. F. Mitchell, county superintendent of schools, said today that he asked that all requests for school tax funds be in his office on or before August 10.

He said he thinks "it would be a good idea" to remind those who apparently are waiting for the deadline that "tomorrow is the tenth."

School districts that were as yet unheard from included Anaheim, Brea, Buena Park, Fountain Valley, Fullerton, Laguna, Lowell Joint, Olinda, Savana and Villa Park. Garden Grove, Huntington Beach and Tustin high school districts also were among the missing.

Special tax requirements are less this year than last. Superintendent Mitchell concluded from the reports he had at hand. He said:

Maintenance Calls Fewer
"There appears to be less call for special maintenance money this year. The school districts have considerable building to do. Garden Grove and Tustin have to provide temporary high school buildings, while Orange, unable to issue bonds on account of the school district boundaries, makes request for the largest special tax. Orange needs money for its new school building which makes its special request $36,000, and its total building fund $12,800.

"Under the provisions of these tabulated requests, a 30-cent rate is allowed for special maintenance and a 15-cent rate for building purposes, which accounts for the two items in the case of Orange. The amounts are figured on the total assessed value of the school district. Reports being summarized by the Sunday school superintendent today were as follows:

Here is Summary

JAP IS BOUND OVER ON ATTACK CHARGE

Charged with assault with intent to commit murder, T. Takahashi, foreman of Japanese on the Irvine farm, today was bound over to the superior court for trial, following his preliminary hearing in the justice court.

K. Kobashi, Japanese interpreter, had considerable difficulty in elucidating the testimony. I. Masuno, the complaining witness, said that the attack occurred on the night of July 28 while he was sitting at the "grub table."

According to Masuno, he told Takahashi's wife that he was going to Los Angeles and he wanted his wages. Takahashi, he said, then wanted to borrow some money from him. An argument followed and, according to Masuno, Takahashi attacked him with a pocket knife, slashing him about the face and neck.

S. Sasaki and his wife, who were eye witnesses to the cutting, admitted having seen Takahashi cut Masuno and told of giving him first aid. They did not seem to know what the row was about.

Hakahashi said that he and Masuno entered a partnership to raise sweet potatoes and that he borrowed $200 from Masuno and that he had paid $100 back to him while working on a farm in the Imperial valley.

It is assumed that Takahashi became offended at some remark that Masuno made when he asked for a second loan. The interpreter declared that Takahashi's answers to the questions were not intelligible. "Him talk too much and say nothing," said the interpreter.

DESCENDANTS OF WAR HEROES TO BE SOLD! YES, HOMER PIGEONS

Is the welfare of the families of those who saw active service during the World War, of interest to Santa Anans?

Made public through an announcement posted on the bulletin board of the local post office, is the knowledge that radical steps are to be taken in arranging for the future of the immediate families of a number of members of Uncle Sam's trusted air squadron.

No, they weren't aviators, exactly, but their work was all aerial and very important. They were the homing pigeons which were trained for service during the war and whose pedigreed offspring are now being offered for sale at March Field, Riverside, where the government aviation school will be discontinued.

LIGHTING PLANT SOLD TO PURCHASING AGENT DESPITE HIS PROTEST

County Purchasing Agent F. W. Slabaugh has a "white elephant" on his hands and he wants to get rid of it.

The "elephant" is the worn-out lighting plant at the county farm. To conform with technical procedure the board of supervisors made a play at selling the plant at auction this morning.

They gathered in the front vestibule of the courthouse and Chairman T. B. Talbert acted as the auctioneer. There were no bidders present. Talbert simply moved that the plant be sold to Slabaugh for $20 and the motion carried unanimously over Slabaugh's protest.

It is now up to Slabaugh to sell the plant to somebody else. And he expects to do so through a private sale.

According to Slabaugh, the plant is worn out. It was installed six years ago and it is estimated that the county would have to spend $400 if it were repaired, while a new plant could be bought for about $600.

EMBEZZLEMENT CASE MAN IS ARRESTED

Arraigned in the justice court here on two separate charges, R. C. Worsdell was a prisoner in the county jail today in default of $1000 bail. His preliminary hearings are set for August 26 at 2 and 3 p. m.

One complaint was sworn to by W. A. Goodwin, of Fullerton, who charges Worsdell with embezzlement of one unit of the Eden Syndicate, valued at $250. The alleged offense was committed at Huntington Beach August 29.

The other complaint is sworn to by E. S. Scales, of Brea, and charges the defendant with passing a check for $164.78 with intent to defraud. It was drawn on the Huntington Beach branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank.

Worsdell was arrested in Los Angeles on the strength of a circular sent out by City Marshal Jam Jernigan. He was brought here by Under Sheriff E. E. French.

TEACHER'S SUIT TO GO TO JURY SOON

The civil action brought by Miss Mary E. Stuart, Los Angeles school teacher, against Ray Walker and W. C. Linder of Huntington Beach and the Midway Petroleum company, to recover a lot which she claims was taken from her through fraudulent methods, was expected to go to the jury late this afternoon.

Several witnesses, including the plaintiff and her mother, had been heard. Miss Stuart alleges that Walker made the original overture for the purchase of her lot, telling her that he wanted to turn it over to a friend from Kansas who would raise corn on it.

She further alleges that Walker sold the lot to Linder for a consideration of $10 after paying her only an initial installment of $50. Her selling price, she says, was $700. It developed that the lot later was leased to the Midway Petroleum company.

The defendants assert that they did not acquire the lot through misrepresentation and that Miss Stuart's claim that she was deceived as to oil prospects at Huntington Beach are groundless.

JURORS FAIL TO FIX BLAME FOR SEA TRAGEDY

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9 — A federal investigation to fix responsibility for the Alaska disaster was expected to get under way here today.

Many of the survivors began arriving here today, most of them coming on the steamer Anyox.

EUREKA, Cal., Aug. 9 — The list of victims definitely known to have perished when the Alaska was sunk, was increased to eighteen this morning when the body of an unknown seaman was washed ashore near Point Mendocino.

WITNESS BLAMES CREW IN SHIP TRAGEDY

EUREKA, Cal., Aug. 9 — Responsibility for the wreck of the steamer Alaska, Saturday night, with the loss of 45 lives, must be determined by other than local authorities.

A coroner's jury holding an inquest over one of the seventeen bodies which have been recovered, returned the simple verdict:

"Death by drowning and shipwreck."

The tale of the steamer striking Blunt's Reef during a fog was retold at the inquest and charges were made of inefficiency in handling alleged improperly equipped life-boat but little new was added to the details already known.

Most of the survivors had left Eureka today. A few of the injured and more exhausted remained.

During the night watch fires were kept burning on the beach and patrols trudged along the sands of Cape Mendocino, in hope that some of the human forms would come to shore.

Little Betty Jean Saunders, who drifted all night swathed in a blanket and life preserver, and was rescued by little less than a miracle, left for her parents' home in Los Angeles in charge of another survivor.

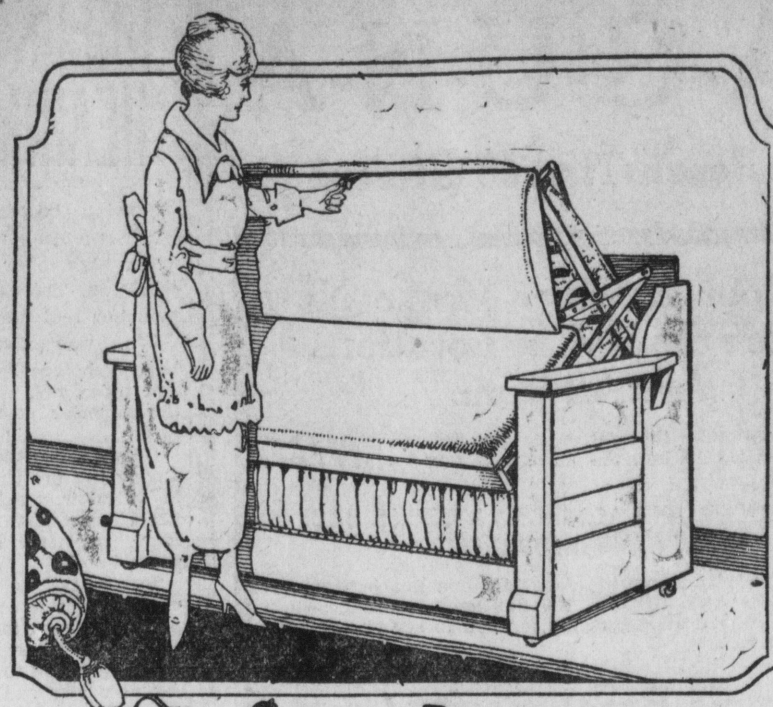

Betty carried with her a big new doll to replace the beloved one that went down with the ship, and her chubby hands were keeping nice and warm in a big muff an admirer gave her. She is still ignorant of the fact that her grandmother is among the missing.

FARM BUREAU MAY BE LIBRARY OFFICE

With the establishment in Santa Ana of the central distributing point of the newly organized county free library, the board of supervisors of the county is now facing the problem of suitable quarters.

Miss Margaret Livingstone, who recently arrived from the northern part of the state to assume her duties as county librarian, has been located in the office of R. P. Mitchell, county school superintendent, but with the opening of the schools an event of the near future, and the necessity for permanent location before that event shall take place, the problem of quarters assumes a large size.

Slabaugh will present the advantages which the farm bureau offers and action will probably be taken by the supervisors at an early date.

The different school districts of the county which will subscribe to the free library will select their own sub-stations but the main distributing point will be the local one where Miss Livingstone will have her headquarters.

RECORD DASHES IN SO. CAL. BY AUTO DEALERS ARE PLAYED

Automobile Club and L. A. Motor Dealers' Body Hit Practice

TO BACK AUTHORITIES

Organization Ready to Co-operate With Sheriffs, District Attorneys

Auto record-making runs on public highways have struck a snag. Long frowned upon by tolerant persons, the instigators of the runs have drawn destroying fire from their own kind.

The Automobile club of Southern California opened the attack and received the prompt endorsement of the Motor Car Dealers' association of Los Angeles, according to word received here today.

Automobile dealers, who for the purpose of advertising the cars they have to sell make record-breaking runs, are characterized in a resolution passed by the automobile club, as "criminally reckless of the lives and property of travelers on the highway."

The club's resolution states that such runs are staged "in wanton violation of the law and tend to encourage similar violation and contempt for the law by others."

Explains Action
In the explanation of the necessity for action, the resolution states "certain motor car dealers of Los Angeles and Southern California have lately been advertising extensively certain violations of the motor vehicle act of this state in the form of record-breaking road runs between various points for advertising purposes."

"The Automobile Club of Southern California, its directors, officers and members are strenuously opposed to this form of advertising," continues the resolution, "and hereby expresses its emphatic disapproval of such record-breaking runs and of any advertising concerning such runs."

The resolution was forwarded immediately to the Motor Car Dealers' association of Los Angeles, and as promptly returned with that organization's hearty endorsement.

Dealers in Accord
"We are heartily in accord with this resolution," said the communication addressed to the automobile club by the directors of the dealers' association. "Record-breaking runs, or any violation of the motor vehicle act of the state by members of this association have not had in the past and will not have in the future, the approval or the sanction of this board of directors."

David R. Faries, general counsel of the Automobile club of Southern California, announces that the resolution and its endorsement has been included in a letter to all boards of supervisors and all district attorneys of Southern California.

"We are placing these resolutions," his letter said, "before you

MOTOR SHOW AT ORANGE GIVEN LAST TOUCHES

While electricians were stringing streamers of lights over the plaza at Orange today, members of the Orange County Auto Trades association were putting final touches on their arrangements for tomorrow's "Midsummer Motor Show."

Herbert O. Davis, secretary of the association, has been assisting Bob White, chairman of the arrangements committee, in gaining solid support from the entire county for the one-day show.

The auto trades association plans to entertain as large a number of Orange county folk as it is possible to squeeze into the confines of the plaza. Invitations were sent broadcast.

Support of members is shown, the committee declares, by the fact that more than sixty-seven display spaces have been reserved by automobile and truck dealers of the county. Displays also will be made of auto accessories, camp equipment, and the various and sundry "new-fangled contraptions" that create a fascination in the fingers of every autoist.

The exhibit will open its doors to the public at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, according to present plans, and will continue through the evening. Entertainment features prepared include songs by local talent and musical numbers by the auto

"Will Help Los Angeles—Therefore All Right"

The Register received today a clipping from the Santa Paula Chronicle in which Editor McPhee disposes, with characteristic sarcasm, of the grabbing propensities of Los Angeles with especial reference to power projects and the newspaper business.

In a brief personal note Mr. McPhee says:

Santa Paula, California,

August 8, 1921.
"Editor Register—This" referring to the editorial clipping, "is the way, it appears to me, that this matter should be regarded by the average citizen of any of the smaller cities."

"A newspaper owned by Los Angeles interests would naturally favor any plan to grab all the power projects of the state for Los Angeles, and also the newspaper and publishing business of the state, so far as may be possible."

Where is it going to stop?

The fact that an announcement was made of the intention to start a newspaper, conducted on similar lines to the one proposed for Santa Ana, in San Fernando shows that no town is considered too small to be given a Los Angeles newspaper.

Yours truly,

H. M'PHEE.
The editorial from the Chronicle (printed below) seems to have been inspired by a report sent out by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce. But it might have been inspired by reports and resolutions emanating from Riverside, San Bernardino or Imperial counties. The people all over Southern California are up in arms over the plans of Los Angeles to grab off all the commerce and industries of Southern California.

The Chronicle is favored with a copy of a report which is thus introduced:

"The following report, submitted to the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce by its special investigating committee, points out very fully the dangers underlying the proposed Constitutional Amendment now being foisted on the people of California by the so-called League of Municipalities, which measures really sets up a super-government in California at an expense of at least $30,000,000 a year—this for the selfish benefit of the City of Los Angeles."

"This report is sent you for your earnest consideration." The Chronicle has considered it, and is in favor of the proposed scheme. Granting that it is one to grab all the water power of the country in the interest of Los Angeles city, well, the Chronicle is in favor of it just the same.

Give Los Angeles everything she wants. And Heaven knows, she wants enough!

The Chronicle, to be consistent, must also be in favor of the plan to establish in the smaller Southern California cities newspapers to be conducted simply as branches of a Los Angeles newspaper, and, of course, taking orders from its owners in Los Angeles and working for their interests. Each and every subscriber of the newspaper so conducted will receive, free of charge, a copy of the Los Angeles publication, from which, it is fair to assume, the reader is supposed to get the correct dope on all matters whatsoever.

Santa Ana is to be given the priceless boon of a new paper to be conducted along such lines, and, strange to say, some of the people of Santa Ana are ungrateful enough to object to it.

MINISTERS HIT AT 'RELIGIOUS DANCE' IDEA

Say San Diego Pastor Is Seeking Publicity for New Cult

By ELEANOR ELLIOTT
Is dancing a ministry as well as an art?

Are the peoples of the future going to return to rhythmic motion as a means of singing their praises unto the Lord?

Assertion has been made by a youthful minister of San Diego, the Rev. Ernest C. Wilson, that such is the case.

Is the Rev. Mr. Wilson a few thousand years behind the times, or is he in advance of the procession of humanity?

In Biblical days, part of the temple rites included dancing, a custom which is maintained to this day by certain faiths. These are few and far between, it is true, and the expression of their religion is one which, because of its rarity, draws a curious and sensation-seeking crowd of onlookers many times.

In the peculiar religious fervor which attends the rites of idol-worshipping heathens, dancing ever maintains a prominent place.

Would Christian and God-fearing men of today want to see their religious observances placed on the same plane as those of heathen idolaters?

To Express Religion?

The Rev. Mr. Wilson says in effect that since dancing is one of the most natural forms of expression, it should be used to express religion, and to that end he has just completed a series of lessons in one of the famous schools of Los Angeles.

Will his views ever be adopted by the members of his own church? "We all must concede the charm and grace of movement in connection with music," stated the Rev. J. G. Kennedy of the United Presbyterian church, "but I fail to see where it has a legitimate place in religious ceremonies. Dancing is not an expression of religion, no matter how many of its apostles may seek to have it so."

"In fact, dancing masters' associations of today are seeking to restrain the lascivious nature of the dance so that it may be made fit for ordinary social life, and even when that might be brought to pass, it would still be impossible to conform religious worship to the standards of play. There is little use or advisability for the church to try to compete with the world in its pleasures, for the boundaries of each are too sharply defined, and dancing is, and always will be, one of the religious ones."

Lack of Reverence

"The greatest trouble with our civilization today is that it lacks the spirit of reverence for sacred things. The Episcopalians and the Catholics are on the right track in their attitude of retaining the sanctity of the church as the house of God, and it is one that all other churches would do well to follow."

"I am far too busy with the social constructive work of the gospel to pay attention to such minor matters," stated the Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, "and, furthermore, it doesn't interest me in the least."

"A minister who voluntarily makes such a statement is probably only a notoriety-seeker," was the opinion advanced by the Rev. Otto S. Russell of the First Baptist church, who continued:

"Dancing as a method of expression of worship is within the remote bounds of possibility, were it to be the dancing of the Old Testament days, but the trend of the times and the trend of dancing is not toward the old Hebrew method of expressing religious devotion."

"No Protestant church of the present day could endorse such an idea, and only the new cults and beliefs, which could hardly be called religious beliefs, would endorse such a statement and such a movement."

Mere Advertisement, Claim
"The whole statement is a form of advertisement, partly of a dancing school, partly of the young man's religious cult."

"It is as far cry from the religious dances of the early Hebrews to the modern dance," stated the Rev. F. T. Porter of the First Christian church. "A glance at the modern dance hall will serve to show the fact that dancing as a means of religious expression is far from the bounds of possibility among present-day churches, for nothing under heaven is more foreign to religious services than modern dancing."

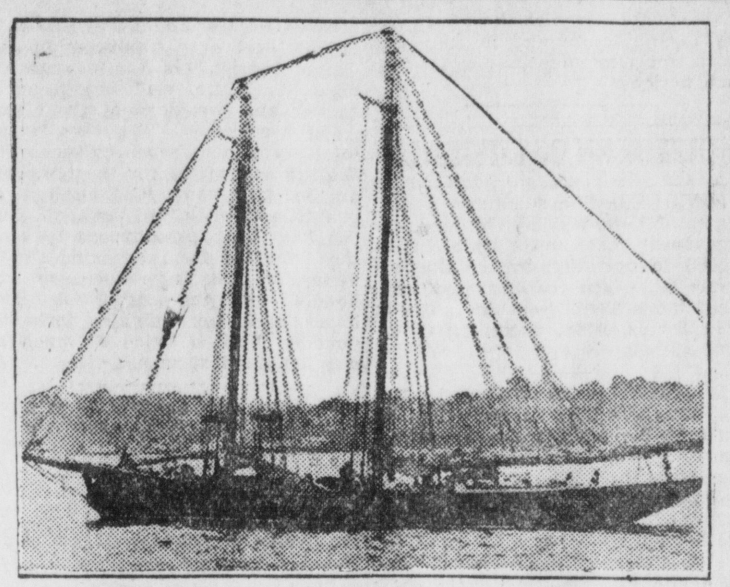

"Anyone needing proof of that statement need only consult our city and county officers and our probation officer."

"And it would be almost a physical possibility to remove dancing from its present plane and place it on that plane it occupied when it was a religious expression and when it was indulged in by men and women dancing alone as an expression of their joy in serving the Lord."

"A minister who advances the theory that it will take its place as a religious observance in our present-day churches, I would regard as a fit subject for the asylum. He is merely seeking publicity, and one can be assured that he will never do anything for the uplift of the world."

NAME TANGLE IS BARED AS MAN FACES COURT

If you should hear of another person who bears your name and if that person were in trouble would you be curious enough to look him up?

Such a coincidence aroused the curiosity of H. S. Vaughn, proprietor of the Central Auto park.

Vaughn read two or three stories in The Register about a man of the same name who was accused of taking a truck belonging to George Wright, local transfer man, and driving it to San Bernardino.

And a lot of Vaughn's friends read the same story. They met him on the street and congratulated him on being out of jail. When he tried to explain that the newspaper stories were incorrect, that he was not in the habit of joyriding in trucks and that he had not been arrested his friends did not know whether to believe him.

"Treats in Order
But Vaughn took the situation good naturedly. He says that he bought at least twenty Coca-Colas in one day. Every time he would run into someone he knew he would be questioned about his arrest. Then, after attempting to clear himself he would invite the friend in to a soda fountain and they would drink to his health."

As a matter of fact, H. S. Vaughn, not the auto park man, was arrested last Friday in San Bernardino. He was accused of taking a Moreland truck belonging to George Wright without his consent and in his absence. This man was given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Cox yesterday and bound over to the superior court with bail fixed at $300.

And his namesake, H. S. Vaughn, of the Central Auto park, sat beside the defendant in an Eastern city. As he had no father in the East he concluded the letter did not belong to him. Across the face of it he wrote "Opened by mistake," and sent it back to the post office. It finally was delivered to the right man.

Letters Tangled
The auto park Vaughn got one letter which informed him that his father had been accidentally burned in an explosion in an Eastern city. As he had no father in the East he concluded the letter did not belong to him. Across the face of it he wrote "Opened by mistake," and sent it back to the post office. It finally was delivered to the right man.

The accused Vaughn did not take the stand in his own behalf and had nothing to say relative to driving the truck to San Bernardino. The only witnesses were George Wright, the transfer man, and City Marshal Sam Jernigan. Wright told of missing the truck last Wednesday morning. Jernigan told of a purported confession that the accused made on the return trip from San Bernardino.

According to Jernigan, Vaughn told him that he was out of work and thought he could get something to do in San Bernardino. He was without funds and desperate. So, according to Jernigan, he commandeered Wright's truck. Wright said that Vaughn worked for him about two days.

Baby Makes Mistake
The defendant's wife and baby and his mother were in the court room at the time of his hearing. The baby was very talkative and made the monumental blunder of calling Vaughn, the auto park man, "Papa."

He picked the baby up and fondled it.

The defendant's mother offered him some clean handkerchiefs as he left the courtroom for the jail. He took them and walked on.

MYSTERY BABY AWAITS ADOPTION AT COUNTY HOSPITAL HERE, WORD

Would you like to adopt a girl baby now a week old?

Dr. H. E. Zaiser, superintendent of the county hospital, stated today that he was seeking a responsible home for a baby which was born at the hospital.

He declined to say who the parents were, but it is understood that that information may be had by applicants for the child.

SEVERAL PASTORS ON VACATION TRIPS

With the coming of August and the fact that the month is the one chosen by the members of the Santa Ana Ministerial union for the series of Sunday night services in which the Protestant churches of the city join more leisurely is afforded the members of the union than at any other season of the year.

Hence the month is marked by a number of short vacation trips on the part of the various ministers who feel that the pressing need of preparing Sunday night sermons is not so great as in ordinary months. Among the ministers who are thus relieved for short trips are the Rev. F. T. Porter, of the First Christian church, who has been combining pleasure and business in Los Angeles; the Rev. John Oliver, of the First Methodist church, who plans to spend the coming two weeks at Idyllwild above Hemet; the Rev. P. F. Schrock, of the First Congregational church, who is at Big Bear with a party of friends, and the Rev. Stanley Bailes, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who has seized the opportunity to attend the Occidental college conference.

This conference is an annual affair which is held at the Occidental college, where many of the youthful members of the ministry of Southern California who find there an opportunity for exchange of valuable ideas. The Rev. Mr. Bailes went with the expectation of gaining much interesting information which will be of value to him in his work among the young people of the church and the city. He expects to return tomorrow.

BEGIN INVESTIGATION OF SHANGHAI COURT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Upon representations made by W. F. Fleming, an American attorney of Shanghai, President Harding, it was learned today, has ordered investigation of the United States court there. The criticisms were placed before the state department some time ago, during a visit of Fleming here.

Subsequently C. H. Holcomb, the district attorney of the court, was received at the state department upon his return to Shanghai, Fleming was arrested on a charge of libel upon complaint, it is understood, of Sterling Feffenden, a former partner of the district attorney. The complaint was supported by Manuel Concepcion, a son of the former president of the Philippine bank.

The judge of the court is Charles Lublinger.

BELIEVER IN TENETS OF 'APOSTLE' FACES COURT OF JUDGE COX

Joseph R. Aguilar, a Spaniard and admitted believer in the teachings of Brother Peter, one of the twelve "apostles" of Brother Isaiah, so-called "miracle man," was scheduled to face Justice of the Peace J. B. Cox late this afternoon on a charge of battery preferred by Mrs. Aguilar. The woman had her husband arrested on the night of July 6. She said Aguilar beat her and threatened her with a revolver.

Aguilar denies that he struck his wife, as she charges, and repudiates her statement that he brought into their home shoes or handkerchiefs blessed by the apostles.

At the time he was arraigned Aguilar said the handkerchiefs were brought no closer to the house than his front yard.

Apostle Peter early in July conducted meetings on East Walnut street and in the vicinity of Delhi. He has a long white beard and is barefooted. He was heard of recently in San Bernardino.

WIFE WHO LIVED WITH HUSBAND 22 YEARS IS FACING DIVORCE SUIT

James R. Carhart of Fullerton has filed suit for divorce against Helen B. Carhart.

The couple were wed in Fullerton September 25, 1898, and lived together 22 years and 9 months. There are two sons and one daughter, now in the custody of the father.

Carhart alleges that his wife has treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner. During the last four years, he claims, she has absented herself from home for several days at a time and that she would refuse to give an account of herself upon returning, all of which caused him much grievous and mental suffering.

MONITOR'S INVENTOR TO BE REMEMBERED

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—One of the important acts of the last administration was the granting of authority by the Ericsson memorial commission for the immediate construction of the memorial to the inventor of the Monitor by the sculptor, James E. Frazier. This sculptured memorial is to stand off the bank of the Potomac at Washington, near Riverside drive, south of the Lincoln memorial.

The month of March is associated with John Ericsson beyond any power of separation, for it was on March 9, 1862, that the novel and unique war-vessel of his original design so successfully defeated the Union cause by defeating the Confederate ram Merrimac (or as christened in the C. S. A. navy, Virginia), in that duel in Hampton Roads, which revolutionized naval architecture, causing more radical changes in one short period than had ever been made in warships since the first one was set afloat.

'MIRACLE MAN' BOON TO CONCESSIONAIRES

VENICE, Aug. 9.—The "Miracle Man" is the talk of the town in Venice and Santa Monica as well. Believers and non-believers are in daily and hourly collision over his power to attract crowds and to at least convince afflicted ones that they are healed. People who have never seen him and people who hang on his words every night and day can be seen and heard almost anywhere in the beach cities arguing about the merits of his daily sessions on the beach. And they are hot arguments, too. The extremes meet often and opinions both for and against are more than decided. They seem indelible.

The events department of the Kinney company, which brought the "healer" to the beach, announced today that concessions are doing a good business from the extra crowd that comes to the beach. Not all concession men agree with this, however. One stated today that he had received no benefit from it and did not know that others had.

RIFT ALONGSIDE P. E. TRACKS ON MAIN REMAINS TO BE PAVED IS FOUND

Hiatus Discovered Between Finley Strip and Railway's Property

SOLUTION APPEARS NEAR

Interurban Engineer Says His Company Ready to Have Work Done

Who is going to fill in the fissure along the edges of the Pacific Electric right of way from Fourth street to Seventh street?

It looks as though the job will go to Steele Finley with the P. E. paying the bill.

Some months ago the Pacific Electric undertook to pave its right of way in a manner to stand rough traffic, as well as to stand the vibration of its own cars. After trying many kinds of pavement on many streets in many cities, the P. E. came to the conclusion that its best bet was the use of great quantities of broken rock with a surface of crushed rock and oil.

It took the P. E. weeks to get the Main street job finished. In the meantime, the city was moving along toward the consummation of its plans for the repaving of Main street on either side of the P. E. tracks and up to the curbs.

Fissures Appear

Within the past two or three days crews of men at work for Steel Finley, who has the contract for paving Main street from Fourth to Seventh, began putting in the forms for the pouring of concrete. Some property owners along the street came suddenly to a realization that there was a fissure four, five and in places eight inches or more across all along the P. E. strip between the base that Finley is under contract to lay and the strip the P. E. has paved.

It began to look as though there would be another period of waiting before the street was really and truly finished. It sometimes takes the P. E., like other large bodies, a long time to move.

Indications today are that in this instance the P. E. will step up promptly to fill in the ranks.

City Street Superintendent Edward Dahl has been assured by C. E. Johnson, chief engineer for the P. E., that the P. E. will have the fissures filled in promptly. Johnson expressed a willingness to have the job done by Steele Finley, so that Finley in finishing his work could make a satisfactory union of the paving of the P. E. with the paving that Finley is doing for the property owners.

No Contract Yet

"No, I haven't any contract with the P. E. yet," said Finley this morning. "I was in Los Angeles yesterday to see Chief Engineer Johnson, but I was unable to find him. I am informed that he told Street Superintendent Dahl that he wants to contract with me for filling in the fissure at the time that I put on the asphalt surfacing on the work I now have under contract."

"I don't know just what will be used to fill in the base of the narrow strip between my paving and the broken rock and oil paving done by the P. E. on its strip. I think likely that I will pour concrete into the fissure and make the base. En-

Seeing With The Soul

Some one has said that the eyes are the windows of the soul. But unless the soul uses these remarkable windows, they resolve themselves into mere mechanical organs of sight.

The man who really sees is the one who is rich in living.

For us all there is so much to see—though so little is seen. While days are lost to many because of blindness of the eyes.

The things that you want most to see, you are surest of seeing. Eyes are able to search just as the mind is able.

Blind people often see more than those whose sight is normal and strong.

Our wills see!

The man who sees walks in a quieter and more serene way than any other. He walks in sureness and in confidence.

He sees beauty, the good in happenings and people, and his vision is an extended affair. For him to see need is for him to brighten in his heart and to tend his hand in service.

On through the lanes of happiness does every man and woman tread whose eyes see the best in everything.

He sees farthest who helps another to see!

sineer Johnson, however, may ask for asphalt. It is planned, so I am informed, for me to tear off the crushed rock and oil surfacing of the P. E. up to the rail, probably to a depth of the rail, and I will then make a solid asphalt surfacing from the curb to the P. E. rail. That appears to be the most likely plan."
For Heavy Edges.
Finley said that he is very strongly in favor of increasing the thickness of concrete base at the edge of any street or road paving unless the paving joins on to some firm wall or curb.

"It will be noticed by those who have watched the preparation of the base on Main street from Fourth to Seventh," said Finley, "that there is to be more base laid along the edge toward the P. E. tracks than elsewhere on the street. The edges of the base next to the P. E. are to be ten inches thick instead of six inches, which is the thickness called for for the rest of the street."
Finley's crews will begin pouring concrete for the base tomorrow. This work will be on the property owners' strips only.

THEATERS
Tonight hundreds of Santa Ana theater goers will play host to two of the leading lights of the theatrical world, when Louise Dresser and Jack Gardner, celebrated musical comedy stars and vaudeville headliners, will open a two night's engagement at the Yost theater.
It is through the endeavors of Melklejohn and Dunn that Miss Dresser and Mr. Gardner will make their appearance in Santa Ana. Miss Dresser and Mr. Gardner will present the identical act that is to be their offering in the country's largest and best theaters the coming season — the only difference being that in Santa Ana they appear for the first time in their careers at popular prices — and that Santa Ana is to see these stars one week ahead of the Orpheum patrons in San Francisco and three weeks previous to their appearance in Los Angeles.
The program at the Yost tonight, according to E. D. Yost, is without a doubt the greatest program, act for act, that he has ever been able to present.
In addition to the headliners, the bill will include Miss Marion Munson and her company, Weston and Elise, "The upper and underworld pair," Jeff and Jeff, eccentric comedy team. All of these names have decorated the lobbies of the best theaters in the country.
A warning and an appeal has been sounded by Yost. It is concise and to the point: "Come early if you want a seat"—for there is not a doubt that hundreds will be disappointed.

The usual popular vaudeville road show price will prevail, despite the fact that it is a $2 show. In addition to the great vaudeville program Constance Binney in "Such a Little Queen," one of the best photoplays of this diminutive little star, will be shown.

BAFFLING SITUATIONS IN 'HEARTS ARE TRUMPS'
What should a man do who lost his daughter in a card game, only to discover that she was secretly married to an underling, and his honor contemptuously snuffed at by the gambler and won? This fascinating problem will be presented in "Hearts Are Trumps," the exciting picture that comes to the Princess Theater as the feature attraction for two days beginning today.

Certainly it is a queer situation which photoplay fans will go to see unravelled.
After Lord Altair, the father, learns of the marriage, he orders Michael Wain, his forester, lashed by the keepers. Wain thinks his wife, Lady Winifred is responsible and vows revenge. Twenty years afterward he succeeds by becoming wealthy and foreclosing the mortgage of the manor. Lord Burford, the man who had won the card game, now pursues Lady Winifred's daughter, Dora. He disgraces her by stealing the half-finished portrait painted by her fiancée, and having a nude figure attached to the head. She is trapped in a Swiss chalet by the old rogue. The climax comes with the unexpected action of a money-lender and the arrival of aid in a bitter snow storm.

It is estimated that the association will handle during the season 35,000 field boxes, each box weighing forty-five pounds. This is twice as much as was handled last year.

OWN YOUR OWN OIL—ENJOY THE BIG PROFIT
—You are not one of those who made 700 per cent on George Anderson's Block 41 and Y. M. C. A. wells drilled last fall in Breckenridge, Tex., because all of the units in those 2 successes were sold out in a few hours' time right in Breckenridge. But—you have an opportunity to join him today in what he says will be his biggest dividend payer—
HELLENIC OIL SYNDICATE
—Mr. George Anderson, the same man who operated Block 41 and Y. M. C. A. syndicates, and who has paid out over half a million dollars in dividends to his unit-holders invites the people of Santa Ana to join him in what he predicts will be his greatest winner of all—The Hellenic Oil Syndicate.
—Can you doubt George Anderson's ability to choose productive oil property, his knowledge of the oil business or the honesty and fairness of the Unit Plan under which he operates and pays profits? Of course you cannot.
—When he says "I believe I will have one of the greatest dividend payers Breckenridge has yet produced," you know that the statement comes from a man who is a success, who has paid over $500,000 to investors and who knows the oil business from the ground up.
—When Mr. Anderson finished his Y. M. C. A. and Block 41 successes he spent three months going over the monster Breckenridge field to find the best location for his biggest proposition, Hellenic.
—He selected 40 rich acres north and east of Ivan. Again his judgment is proven—big wells have been completed all around the acreage. The big companies and independent operators shrewdly followed George Anderson's lead and leased acreage as close to Hellenic as they could get.
—Here are the details on this sterling investment:
SEVEN-EIGHTHS OF HELLENIC'S OIL GOES TO UNIT HOLDERS
—Forty rich acres, four wells.
—There are four oil sands in Hellenic's territory—1,865 feet, 2,240 feet, 2,800 feet and 3,200 feet.
—Hellenic's first well now drilling below 1,650 feet.
—Seven of Hellenic's neighbor wells average 2,015 barrels per day, over one-half of them producing from the 1,865-foot sand.
—Hellenic combines advantages of big acreage and small capitalization—only 1,500 units, $100.00 each.
—Capital is ample and fair.
—Each of last three wells drilled with seven-sixteenths of profits on preceeding well.
—For example, seven-sixteenths of well No. 1 drills well No. 2, seven-sixteenths of well No. 2 drills well No. 3, etc.
—After the wells are producing only the bare operating expense is deducted from 7/8 of all the oil.
—$100.00 buys one barrel out of every 1,500 Hellenic gets.
—$300.00 buys three barrels out of every 1,500 or one barrel out of every 500.
—$500.00 buys five barrels out of every 1,500 Hellenic gets, or one barrel out of every 300.
—Hellenic is in proven territory.
—Buy Hellenic now. Get in your order at once.
—Carden, Liebig & Seamans have invested their own money in Hellenic. Banking men in Los Angeles have subscribed. Burbank ranchers have taken units in Blocks. Many people in Orange will own part of Hellenic's oil. This advertisement will appear in Santa Ana for three days only. If you want to actually own oil production and share in its handsome profit this is your chance to do it. $100.00 Units in George Anderson's Y. M. C. A. well sold for $700 each; Block 41 Units sold for $900.00 each. These two wells are still paying handsome monthly dividends. Hellenic Units, calling for one barrel out of every 1500 barrels of oil Hellenic gets from its entire 40-acre tract (and unitholders get a full 7/8 of all the oil) are now only $100.00 each.

NICO-GARDEN-DUST

Nico-Dust, which is composed of 2.9% Black Leaf 40 and 97% special carrier, is an extremely fine, penetrating dust for Aphids. It is most powerful in warm bright sunshine, when there is but little wind stirring. It is difficult to work in strong wind and, for that reason, best results are attained in this district by dusting in the early mornings. Dew does not especially help the work. Nico-Dust is made by the Walnut Growers' Spray Manufacturing Co. under the particular direction of Prof. Smith of the State University.

THIS WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Brings a Ray of Hope to Childless Women

Lowell, Mass.—“I had anemia from the time I was sixteen years old and was very irregular. If I did any house cleaning or washing I would faint and have to be put to bed, my husband thinking every minute was my last. After reading your textbook for women I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and have never felt better than I have the last two years. I can work, eat, sleep, and feel as strong as can be. Doctors told me I could never have children—I was too weak—but after taking Vegetable Compound it strengthened me so I gave birth to an eight pound boy. I was well all the time, did all my work up to the last day, and had a natural birth. Everybody who knew me was surprised, and when they ask me what made me strong I tell them Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Use this testimonial at any time.”—Mrs. ELIZABETH SMART, 142 W. Sixth St., Lowell, Mass.

This experience of Mrs. Smart is surely a strong recommendation for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is only one of a great many similar cases.

APARTMENT HOUSE NEARING COMPLETION

NEWPORT BEACH, Aug. 9.—The apartment building being erected by J. P. Allison is rapidly nearing completion. This week the lath was put on and received one coat of plaster. The lath was put on by union lathers from Santa Ana Local No. 440. The plumbing work is being done by J. R. Lugo.

There are five apartments upstairs. They consist of a kitchenette and one large room which will be divided by built-in features, thereby making the apartment two rooms and kitchenette.

Allison says he expects to rent the apartments furnished for $35 a month if taken by the year. The rooms are lathed and plastered on both sides, making these apartments as private as those of any first class apartment house or hotel.

PLANTA BEET DUMP OPEN FOR SEASON

TALBERT, Aug. 9.—The Planta beet dump is open for the season. Seven ranchers, all Japanese and Mexicans are hauling at this time. Fred State, weighmaster, and the Devoe brothers, O. A. and W. E., compose the dump crew.

S. E. Talbert and William Yost began hauling beets Thursday. They ship from Planta.

Mrs. Maybelle Harper had as a weekend guest Miss Vena Ross of Bolso.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Talbert have received a letter from the Rev. Mr. Obar, former pastor of the local church, and friends will be sorry to learn that his health, which was affected by a serious attack of influenza two years ago, is not improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Loevick and family are at San Juan Hot Springs on a week's vacation, having left Monday for that resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walker and little daughter, of Orange, were Thursday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper.

H. E. Talbert finished constructing a pump hole Thursday for the Fidelity Oil company at Huntington Beach, and the day following began work on another lease.

FIRE HORSES NOT TO HAUL GARBAGE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—Fire horses honorably discharged from the city's service will not haul garbage.

Nine members of the city council so decided. It was agreed tentatively that $5,000 would be paid to buy mules for the engineering department's use on garbage wagons.

The fire horses will stay with the park department, where they are now quartered.

Last Wednesday the finance committee decided to recommend that eighteen retired fire horses go into garbage service. A storm of protest arose and the report was not put before the council.

PEARLS IN MUSSELS CAUSE OF STAMPEDE

DALLAS, Ore., Aug. 9.—Practically everybody going to Netarts nowadays is searching for pearls, and quite a number of the precious stones have been found. The craze was started by accident. A camper was eating a mussel when he bit on something hard. Investigation showed that he had found a pearl.

A jeweler estimated that the find was worth $20 to $25. This started the hunting, and there was real excitement a day or two later when one person found a pearl valued at from $150 to $200. The result has been that mussels are being collected in large quantities, a search made for pearls and the food thrown away.

MUNICIPAL BAND TO PRESENT PROGRAM

ORANGE, Aug. 9.—The Orange Municipal Band will render the following concert tonight:

March—Punjab Payne
Overture—Il Guarany Gomez Popular—Na Jo Wiedoeft
Sextette from Lucia Donizetti
Clarinet Solo—Air Varla on William Tell Rossini
L. M. Tozier
Selection—American Airs Bendix
Horn Solo—Holy City Adams
Mr. Wolf
Popular—All by Myself Berlin
Waltzes—Il Five d Italy Stefano
March—El Capitan Sousa
The Charles Piester and L. F. Robinson families recently spent a day in Glendale.

Mrs. Isaac Turner, of 501 East Palmyra, who went east to the Mayo Brothers' Hospital, Rochester, Minn., successfully underwent a throat operation and is recovering nicely.

Major and Mrs. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Davis and son, motor to the G. A. R. encampment, located this year in the beautiful Santa Monica canyon.

Mrs. E. B. McCoy spent the week end with friends at Long Beach.

CYPRESS

CYPRESS AND HANSEN, Aug. 9.—Beet harvest commenced last Friday. The local dump opened with A. K. Bradley, weighmaster; Frank Frampton, dumper and Earl Neely, sample catcher.

D. C. Bates is building a cottage on his property just south of town. C. O. Bedford is the carpenter.

Many of the land holders were over to Buena Park Monday to take the first step in placing their property under the State Torrens Title.

Mrs. George B. Miller, Miss J. Hudson and Mrs. W. C. Miller, were all day visitors at the Cherry home in Santa Ana last Wednesday.

SEEK CONSERVATION OF STORM WATERS

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 9.—Asking aid of the city in the storm water conservation work which is annually carried along the Santa Ana river, Francis Cuttle, head of the Tri-County Reforestation committee and Conservation association, appealed to the City Water commission at a meeting held Tuesday evening to aid financially in the savings of the storm water to as great a degree as possible.

While some of the commissioners look with favor on the work, no decision was reached at the meeting. The city has not contributed to the work for some time, but the county last year made an appropriation of $25,000 and will probably aid this year also.

Cuttle went into great detail as to the work of conserving the storm water by turning it into the artesian basin by means of diversion dams of wire and boulders, the water seeping into the sands and helping to maintain the water level of the valley.

Large quantities of water are saved by this method and it is believed that it is a big element in the maintaining of the water level and that had it not been for this work that the water problem would have been more serious than it now is.

The Santa Ana river basin is said to be a source of a portion of the water used by the city, and for that reason San Bernardino is urged to assist in the work.

During the winter months a large force of men is maintained at the mouth of the Santa Ana canyon to aid in the diversion of the storm water, the dams doing a portion of the work automatically. The water sinks into the gravel beds and eventually finds its way to the artesian basin which supplies large quantities of water for municipal and irrigation purposes.

A real power lift orchard disc plow will be on display at M. Eltiste & Company's quarters at the auto show in Orange, Aug. 10.

LOYAL DAUGHTERS' BEACH HOUSE PARTY

ORANGE, Aug. 9.—Eight members of the Loyal Daughters class of the Christian Sunday school accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. J. Conner, went to Long Beach early Saturday morning with Mr. Frank Ainsworth and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Porter to spend the week-end and attend the Christian Endeavor meetings at the convention.

The Loyal Daughters, who were able to attend were the Misses May Jamison, Lucille Hessel, Thelma Wayne, Euleta Bivens, Thora Blake, Opal Roberson, Flora McClure, and Velma McClure. They had a suite of rooms and after attending the convention services, had a fine time in the surf and plunge and again had a plunge party very early Sunday morning.

They had a fine time and returned home Sunday evening. Rev. H. J. Hill was their host at the C. E. banquet Saturday evening.

They had some very thrilling moments, chief of which was a session with the landlady.

DOLL-MAKING CONTEST SOURCE OF AMUSEMENT

COSTA MESA, Aug. 9.—Ruth Bradley entertained a number of her friends Thursday afternoon with a doll party at her home.

Clay modeling of dolls was the amusement of the afternoon, a prize being awarded to the one making the best doll, the prize was won by Elizabeth Smith.

There was also an exhibit of dolls and prizes given for the best dressed doll, the smallest doll and the most comically dressed doll.

Hazel Melott was given the prize for the best-dressed doll; Alice Melott for the smallest doll and Carrie Melott for the most comical doll.

At the close of the contest apricot ice cream was served to the following:

Elizabeth Smith, Hazel, Alice and Carrie Melott, Clydena Taylor, Ethel, Modena and Irma Lawson, Ethel Gardner, Vesta and Doris Quinn, Vir-dale, Eva Wilson, Mary Stearns and Ruth Bradley, hostess.

Roy King entertained his Sunday-school class, the Ever Ready, and their teacher, Miss M. L. Stearns, on Thursday evening.

Harold Long, Donald Stearns, Roy King, and Miss Stearns, teacher.

COSTA MESA

COSTA MESA, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Langdon and children motored to Beaumont Wednesday, returning on Thursday.

J. A. Seigel came in Thursday from Bakersfield, where he has been with a surveyor's corps and will assist in the surveying of Newport Beach, preparatory to putting in the sewer system.

Miss Lena Walker of Los Angeles spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker, and sister, Mrs. Harry Hinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed of Long Beach, and their friends from Seattle were callers at the William Stearns' home Thursday afternoon.

Representatives of The Register were in Costa Mesa last Friday looking over the territory with a view to making two routes on the east side so that more subscribers may be taken on. The present route on the east side is the longest and heaviest, making it impossible for the carrier to take on more subscribers, although many are anxious for The Register.

ENTERTAIN AT LAGUNA FOR KANSAS VISITORS

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 9.—Dr. and Mrs. Alden Bolles are having as house guests this summer two Topeka, Kansas, girls, Helen Wilson and Frances Iselman, the latter a niece of Mrs. Bolles.

On Friday afternoon last Dr. and Mrs. Bolles entertained in their honor a lively little party made up of the Misses Louise Annette Burkholder, Dorothy Sammis, June Harding, Zetta Rippey, Katherine Inch, and Lola Tandy, Mrs. George Van Deventer helped the girls have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Swartz, connected with the editorial staff of the Los Angeles Saturday Night, spent last week-end in Laguna. They were entertained by the Misses Hills and Mrs. Ella Goodrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Dale of Santa Ana have taken Miss Boyle's Rose Cottage on the Cliffs for the month of August.

M. Schmidt and son, of Los Angeles, spent last week at Laguna Beach Tent City. Mr. Schmidt is a water color artist and a prominent interior decorator.

Mrs. Kate B. Randall of Hollywood, Mo., spent several days last week with Mrs. Ella Goodrich on the Cliffs.

ORANGE

ORANGE, Aug. 9.—Harry Brown and Mrs. Adella Bell, of San Francisco, who have been visiting relatives returned to their home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Argus Dean and children of Nurevo, are guests of the D. C. Pixley family.

Messrs. D. and A. Hunt motored to Manhattan Beach on business yesterday.

Dr. J. D. Van Buskirk, a medical missionary, just two weeks here from Korea, gave an address most inspiring and instructive Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church.

A capacity house greeted the speaker.

For three weeks longer the four churches will enjoy the Sunday evening meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Andrus of Van Nuys are spending this week with friends. They were formerly residents of Orange.

WINTERSBURG, Aug. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chism, who moved to Wintersburg from Lamar, Colorado the past year have just received word from their old home which was in the wake of the flood which swept Pueblo and vicinity, that another flood of smaller dimensions has swept the district again in which Lamar, La Junta and Trinidad are located.

The frequent reports of this description received by Mr. and Mrs. Chism make them more and more glad that they now call California "home," they say.

Russell Alford, who has been substituting as weigh-master at the American dump, will go to the Wintersburg dump in a similar capacity when it opens this week.

BURGLARIES ON INCREASE.

VENTURA, Aug. 9.—Burglars have pulled off three more jobs in prosperous ranch homes in the Saticoy-Santa Paula section. Nearly $1,000 worth of furs and clothing was taken from the Glenn Good house one night this week; but a large trawful of silver was left untouched. Not only a man's footprints, but those of a woman were found about the house. Jack Gooding's house is another entered this week and several hundred dollars' worth of clothing taken. An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the E. Williams home also.

SURPRISE PARTY IS PLEASANT AFFAIR

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, Aug. 9.—Mrs. W. F. Slater was the honoree at a delightful surprise party on last Tuesday afternoon when a large party of her friends invaded her home.

The pleasant social occasion was planned and successfully carried out by Mrs. E. M. Fox and Mrs. H. O. Ensign.

The time was passed with musical games and visiting and a dainty collation brought by the hostesses was served during the afternoon.

The ladies present were the honoree, Mrs. W. F. Slater, and baby, Mrs. Elmer Turner, and daughter, Alberta, Mrs. Murdoch and three little girls, Mrs. Kanamyer and two children, Mrs. Knight and two children, Mrs. E. Ray Moore and baby, Mrs. Otis Taylor, Mrs. Horace Moore, Mrs. John Moore and two children, Mrs. Bonebrake and two little sons, Mrs. Elmer Gothard and baby, Paul, Mrs. Miller and daughter, Miss Miller, Mrs. Whitson, Mrs. W. W. Blaylock, Mrs. John Stinson and baby, Mrs. E. M. Fox and daughter and Mrs. H. O. Ensign and two daughters.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Asa, of Orange, was a Sunday guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Dille.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Clark, who have resided in this vicinity for some time, moved the past week to Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake and sons, Robert and Howard, drove to Orange Tuesday evening for their daughter, Margaret, who has been visiting her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cook visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chism, Saturday night, and on Sunday the two couples took their lunch and spent the day pleasantly together at Huntington Beach.

Mrs. Walter Dille and two small daughters are spending two weeks at Ramona as guests of her mother.

Harvesting Beets

Beets on the Golden West ranch are now being harvested. They began to plow out Friday and hauling began Monday. The beets go to the Anaheim factory.

Mrs. Cox, of Santa Ana, was an overnight guest at the home of her uncle, J. L. Chism, and the following day Mr. and Mrs. Chism accompanied her home and remained for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Farrar are away on a vacation, which they are spending at Elsinore Hot Springs for the benefit of Mr. Farrar's health. They left on Monday, Earl Farrar driving their machine up to the resort for them. He returned by train and they will be absent a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Brush and small daughter spent Sunday at Hermosa Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker and daughter, Ruth, of Santa Ana, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards.

Mrs. A. H. Moore and her house guest, Mrs. Nathaniel Walton, of Holland island, were Monday evening visitors at the J. L. Chism home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Powell of Colton were Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thornton.

Mrs. F. M. Pryor went to Long Beach to attend the convention of the Church of Christ of Southern California.

Plenty of Food

Here is the most convenient and practical way to practice food and fuel conservation. With Conservo you may can 14 quart jars of fruit or vegetables at one time—or cook an entire meal at one time—over one burner of your stove.

CONSERVO
Conserves Food—Fuel—Time

It conserves, serves and saves. In canning, a new delicacy of flavor is secured and the rare flavor of fresh fruits and vegetables is retained. In cooking, the food is cooked in its own moisture. No water necessary. Thus saving the valuable mineral salts and juices.

The fuel saved by Conservo will pay for it in a short time. And the worry and watching of cooking is eliminated. Let us show you Conservo and tell you how pleased other women are with it.

What Women Are Talking About Today

These fashions come from Paris. It does not matter whether you are going in for the high Spanish head-dress or are wearing your hair in the low roll, the comb is the thing that fashion decrees. Combs are being shown in all sizes and shapes, the bigger the better. The immense comb shown in the top picture is of ornate design and is used by fashionable Paris to top off an elaborate coiffure. The wide comb in the lower picture is worn in France with the simple bun, the hair being smoothly combed back from the forehead.

Today it is the proper handbag which goes one better the old tradition that "You can tell a lady by her gloves." You can put as much money in it—the price, that is—as you want. A bag from Joseph is a work of Renaissance Art. It is a round ball of carved wood. In one half of the ball are vainly furnishings—in the other cards and money may be carried. A bag of black velvet with two rows of jewel-like beads is surrounded by the popular Galalith top with a fantastic dog guarding its treasure. A Galalith button, and pendant like jade finish it. Bags which may be easily copied at home are being shown. They are two huge rosettes of ribbons forming the sides of the bag—suspended from ribbons.

Sarah Bernhardt, the untiring has come once more into the public eye with her new charitable organization to be known as "Reconnaissance aux Meres Francaises," or "Society for the Relief of French Mothers." It is designed to aid mothers whose sons were lost in the war and who are now poverty-stricken because there is no one to provide for them.

When Bernhardt makes her anticipated visit to this country in the near future, it is thought she will give special matinees for the aid of the fund.

"The Gentleman with a Duster" is turning his attention from Downing Street to figures of English society and in his new book, "The Glass of Fashion," important personages are in no way spared, Margot Asquith, for instance, is nicknamed "The Grandmother of the Flapper"—a name quite likely to stick. The book will be brought out in this country by G. P. Putnam.

Rex Ingram has started work on the filmization for Metro of "Turn to the Right," for which the record price of $250,000 and 50 per cent of the profits was paid. Up to the time of the purchase, D. W. Griffith's payment of $175,000 for "Way Down East" was the largest sum ever paid for picture rights. Since then Famous Players have arranged with A. L. Erlanger to pay $500,000 down under a guarantee of $3,000,000 profits for "Ben Hur."

EVENING SALUTATION

"Look to this Day—
For it is Life, the very Life of Life.
In its brief course lie all the Realities of your Existence.
For Yesterday is only a Dream,
And Tomorrow is only a Vision,
But Today well lived makes Every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
Every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well therefore to this Day."

ENGLISH IN GERMANY

An interesting item comes from Berlin to the effect that English may take the place of French as the compulsory foreign language of the German public schools. French will be either ruled out or made optional. The suggestion has been made by the Bavarian minister of education, and is the more notable because of the continued opposition to German in the schools of America.

There are undoubtedly two reasons for the suggestion. The first is hatred of the French and all that pertains to them. The second is Germany's enforced, if tardy, recognition of the true ascendancy of the English-speaking peoples in world affairs. She knows that French may be the language of diplomacy, but that English will be the language of trade, and that in both trade and diplomacy the English-speaking races will dominate, and so she prepares to speak and understand that tongue.

To a certain extent it is a tribute to German foresight, but until Germany realizes that it is not in the language but in the ideals of the English-speaking races that its strength lies, and makes over her national life accordingly, mere mastery of the speech will help her but little.

If gasoline and motor cars keep on going down, aristocrats will be taking to horses and carriages again.

Very rude of the government to call attention to a $60,000,000 delinquency in the payment of the Steel Trust's income taxes. So easy for a busy corporation to overlook a trifle like that! Especially when it isn't in favor of the corporation.

NEW YORK AND SAFETY

New York city with its crowded thoroughfares and throngs of hurrying pedestrians has the lowest fatality rate from automobile accidents of any large city in the United States. It is true that the number of accidents there is greatest, but the ratio of accident to population is lowest.

This may be partly because, as a visitor to New York explained, "more people would be killed in New York every day if everybody did not expect to be," and so people generally are more cautious. But it is due no less to the continuous campaign for safety carried on by the authorities. This campaign has resulted in a steady decrease in the mortality rate during the past five years. The same kind of a campaign, if waged continuously as it has been waged in New York, is bound to have good results.

ABOUT HIGHER POSTAGE

It seems to be accepted at Washington as inevitable that letter postage must go up to three cents again. To law-makers scanning all possible sources of revenue to meet a clamorous budget, this seems an obvious thing to do. There is no agreement, though, as to the amount of money that may be raised by this device.

It cannot be assumed that a 50 per cent raise in the cost of letters and a 100 per cent raise in the cost of postcards will produce a proportionate increase of postal revenue. When these higher rates were in force, during the war period, it was observed that the use of postcards dropped off considerably. It was harder to gauge the effect of the letter postage, because the times were abnormal. There was much greater incentive for both personal and business correspondence. People had more money, then, too.

It seems reasonable to expect that if three-cent postage is to prevail again, there will be a big drop in first-class business letters, at least. Business institutions who use the mails extensively will naturally count the cost of three-cent stamps, and either restrict their correspondence or resort to the third class privilege, which permits the mailing of two ounces of printed matter—including circular letters—for one cent.

Isn't it rather extreme for the Shipping Board to expect lessees of government ships to pay their rent?

People don't take whisky for snake bite any more. More likely to try snake bite to relieve effects of home-made hooch.

MATTER OF MINUTES

At 11 o'clock on the night of July 31, two ships that had been waiting in lower New York harbor for days weighed anchor and started a race for Quarantine. Both carried immigrants from Greece and the Orient. It was of no use to get in before Aug. 1, because the nationalities represented had already exhausted their quotas for July. The immigrants' only hope of admittance was in being counted as part of the August quota.

The Megali Hellas reached Quarantine five minutes after midnight and the Calabria came in two minutes later. By those two minutes delay, 58 men and women on the Calabria were doomed to return to their homes in Greece and Persia. The winning Greek ship had brought in under the wire all of the Greeks and Persians admissible in August; and the August quota filled up those countries' quota for the year. The losing 58, who staked everything on their voyage, will return home penniless.

On such a trivial incident may human fortunes turn in the case of immigrants bound for America, under the new immigration law. On that same first day of August, besides the 58 mentioned, there were 320 foreigners at New York awaiting deportation whose sole offense was arriving a few hours or days later than luckier compatriots.

It is evident that those who enter under this arrangement are in no wise preferable to those who are rejected.

The redeeming feature of the law, from the American standpoint, is the relief it affords the country from what otherwise would be a calamitous invasion of more or less undesirable immigrants from Europe and Asia. But the injustice of the system is so patent as to cast discredit on it from the very beginning. Congress surely will know some of the things to be avoided when it sets about the framing of a permanent immigration measure to take the place of this temporary legislation, and will arrange some way to admit foreigners on a basis not of mere numbers and time of arrival, but of worth and fitness for citizenship.

Remarkable Results

Fourth Estate

No more convincing illustration of the efficiency of newspaper advertising has been presented than the experience of the Literary Digest. Five years ago when the magazine had 350,000 circulation the directors decided that a larger circulation was desirable and that the only way to get it was through advertising. For four years $1,000,000 was invested annually in 400 leading newspapers in the United States with the result that today the magazine has a circulation of 1,300,000, and its income has been increased more than 360 per cent.

Would it have been possible for the Literary Digest to secure such returns from any other medium? We believe not. Newspaper advertising presents its message when people are in a receptive mood. Appearing as it does in a medium that is welcomed and read in practically every household it is bound to attract the attention of masses of people, and if the article advertised possesses real merit, large sales are sure to follow.

Make It a National Shrine

Padena Star-News

"Monticello," the historic estate of Thomas Jefferson, in Albemarle county, Virginia, is offered for sale by Jefferson M. Levy, its owner. It will go to a private purchaser if the national government does not buy it as a memorial to Jefferson. Mr. Levy would sell the estate to the nation for $500,000, but a private purchaser would have to pay much more than that. It has been suggested that the Nation buy the mansion and estate as a summer White House for the occupancy of the President. The estate consists of the historic mansion, well preserved, and more than 700 acres of land.

Thomas Jefferson should be memorialized. No more ardent apostle of democracy, free institutions and "government of the people, by the people and for the people" has arisen in American history than the Sage of Monticello.

Generally regarded as the patron saint of the Democratic party of today, Jefferson was not a Democrat, by party name. The political organization of which he was the most distinguished leader, was generally known as the Republican, or Anti-Federalist party, although sometimes called Democrat. Jefferson, at the head of the Republicans, or Anti-Federalists, and having the support of Madison and Monroe, was pitted against Alexander Hamilton and John Adams, leaders of the Federalists. The Federalists were favorable to a strong central government, while Jefferson and his cohorts were for a large measure of state sovereignty.

Not as a political partisan, but as author of the Declaration of Independence and as advocate of freedom and democratic institutions, should Thomas Jefferson be memorialized. A man of his exalted ideals belongs to all political parties—to all Americans—just as do George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

England Sobering Up

San Bernardino Telegram

England rapidly getting back to normalcy in one respect—drunkenness.

In 1920 there were 95,763 convictions in England and Wales as compared with 57,948 in 1919 and 29,075 in 1918, the last year of the war.

British newspapers are beginning to ask whether this tendency, if not checked, is not going to handicap the nation in its competition with the trade with more temperate nations, particularly America.

This is in marked contrast to their previous scoffing attitude toward our prohibitive laws.

A Distinct Gain

San Bernardino Sun

While the sentences being imposed upon the German war criminals at Leipzig are far too short of what the average person in allied countries may think demanded by the offenses, there nevertheless is a substantial gain for civilization in the laying of penalties where formerly there was bestial trade with more temperate nations, particularly America.

In the latest case acted upon, the German authorities proceeded against two lieutenants of a submarine where the British had demanded action only against the commander. As the commander fled the country, the Germans, in view of the particularly atrocious character of the offense, plainly felt the need of some procedure to meet the demand of civilization.

The case involved the firing on lifeboats after the torpedoing of a Canadian hospital ship. The court, after emphasizing that the attack on the lifeboats was to destroy witnesses, declared that the lieutenants, who took part in the efforts to cover up the crime, should have refused to obey such orders of the commander. The terrible affair the court continued, "casts a shadow over the German navy and the whole submarine war." Although it was held that the two lieutenants were not guilty of first degree murder, each was sentenced to four years' imprisonment.

There would seem to be considerable assurance in these penalties laid upon the lieutenants that if the court can get its hands upon the commander he will be given a worthwhile sentence. It is not, as pointed out, that any of these war fiends is being punished fittingly, but that it is something to force the imposition of penalties where formerly such criminals were decorated.

We know of no other city of the size and importance of Sacramento, which for a moment would permit the use by motor cars of sirens. Yet practically every automobile stage coming into Sacramento makes its presence on our streets known through this instrument for producing hideous sounds, and a number of delivery cars as well as pleasure vehicles are similarly equipped. The use of the siren is particularly obnoxious in the residential districts, and becomes a menace to health when used as it is frequently in the neighborhood of hospitals.—Sacramento Union.

About This Time o' Year

JUDGING THE DRAUGHT HORSES.

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

THE COMRADE

Much of life must be picked up in bits—somewhat as the miner must depend upon his small diggings to repay him for the time he spends in working for the bigger finds.

No matter how long you live, you will find but few humans big enough to "go the route" with you, through weather fair or foul, through circumstances glad or sad.

And so it is that there is evolved the Comrade—our staunch and sterling other-self, in the form of another who is to us our inspiration, and who shares with us our common faith.

The Comrade sees all. He blows away the chaff of our failings and remembers only the wheat of what represents our best.

He is light to our path when darkness hovers. He is the watcher of our soul.

He helps us in covering our journey. We would be lost with him away. He anticipates our wish and will and we step in with him. He helps us to understand. He knows our faults—but motions us the other way when we get too close to them.

The Comrade is not a scorner. For in scorn he sees nothing but ignorance.

His heart is one of kindness and gentleness. His strength is not carried "on his sleeve" but in the invisible chambers of his lifeblood, where it may rise to great power at the merest scent of danger.

Slow to wrath is the Comrade—but tremendous in defense!

You who have a Comrade only know the half of loneliness. Withering winds blow quickly past you. You know where to go when losses pile and drift about you. For your Comrade is your all-in-all just then.

But—

He who scalpels and dissects
Just what comradeship expects,
Finds a corpse and not a thing
That can laugh and dance and sing!

—Harry Kemp.

GEORGE H. CHRISTIAN

The most ambitious projects of the vaunted human race are found in new conveniences to buzz from place to place. The man who sells us motor cars to suit our style and need is due to gather riches at considerable speed, and if he has the thoughtfulness of offering us two, to count his profits as much as he should have to do.

George Christian sells the Maxwell and the Vellie. If you say the Vellie's too expensive and you cannot buy today, he cites you to the Maxwell with its small and modest tires, assuring you it's all a fellow really requires, while if you see the Maxwell first and say it is too light, he says "Now here's the Vellie, which you'll find exactly right."

George used to run a business house in busy Mexico and won the rich experience that country can bestow. He came to Santa Ana as a brilliant afterthought (in doing which he did the thing that others will and ought). His brother shortly followed and engaged in partnership, and they are grabbing business with a swift and certain grip.

THE SEA BREEZE

Spirit that breathest through my lattice; thou
That cool'st the twilight of the sultry day!
Gracefully flows thy freshness round my brow;
Thou hast been out upon the deep at play,
Riding all day the wild blue waves till now,
Roughening thy crests, and scattering high the spray,
And swelling the white sail. I welcome thee
To the scorched land, thou wanderer of the sea!

Nor I alone, a thousand bosoms round
Inhale thee in the fullness of delight;
And languid forms rise up, and pulses bound Livelier, at coming of the wind at night;
And languishing to hear thy welcome sound.
Lies the vast inland, stretched beyond the sight,
Go forth into the gathering shade; go forth,
God's blessing breathed upon the fainting earth!

Time to Smile

THE ABSENT-MINDED BISHOP

Many amusing stories are told of the absent-mindedness of a certain prelate whose see is on the road to Lyons. For example, he was traveling on a branch line in Devonshire, and when the train stopped at a place where tickets are inspected he searched his pockets in vain. "It does not matter in the least, my lord," said the railway official. "It matters a great deal," was the bishop's reply, "for how can I tell where I am going if I cannot find my ticket?"—London Post.

FAIR ENOUGH

"Your honor, you don't realize what it means to send me to jail for speeding."

"Why not, sir?"

"My time is worth money to me."

"Maybe so, but if you can show me a single pedestrian who doesn't think his life is worth more to him than your time is to you, I'll let you off with a nominal fine."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

FINE EMOTIONAL CONTROL

Old Uncle Ezra sat on the fence and whittled. His autocracker jaws were set grimly. The morning was such a dream of early spring at its best that an enthusiastic young chap going by just couldn't help saying: "Fine morning!"

"Mmm!" and more whittling. "I say, isn't a fine morning?" Uncle Ezra looked up savagely: "Wall, be ye wantin' t' git into a argument about it?"

HOOK AND ALL

"And your sweetheart jilted you! Never mind, there's as good fish in the sea."

"Yes, but that one took all my bait!"—London Mail.

Co-operative Marketing

Journal American Bankers' Ass'n

In California, where co-operative marketing has been most successful, financing of farmers and growers is done almost entirely through local bankers or correspondents. The crop mortgage is rapidly disappearing and funds are provided through promissory notes, serial promissory notes, bankers' acceptances or drafts drawn by growers and accepted by the co-operative organizations against non-perishable products stored in public warehouses. The California plan as it now functions shows that it is unnecessary for farmers to establish their own financial machinery, when, through proper organization, it has been proven that banking methods need not be upset or a new financing medium found. Successful co-operative marketing is the result of co-operation between growers, bankers, editors, educators and other leaders.

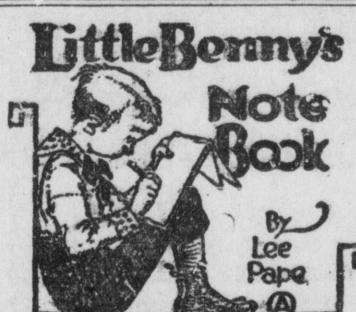

Co-operative marketing associations must be correct in their operations. They are sure to fail if they have the wrong aim or the wrong method. But with the right aim and the best methods, they are also sure to fail if they disregard the need for experienced and broad-gauged men to conduct the business; or ignore the mechanics of operation that parallel modern commercial and banking methods.

There is necessity for careful study by experts of the particular commodity and of all the commercial conditions affecting it before any specific plan can ever be recommended as the right method of co-operative marketing for any particular farm product.

A vast body of experience serves to guide and to provide precedents for the proper methods and operations of co-operative marketing associations. The movement is found in every civilized country in the world.

In the United States, the movement has been most successful on the Pacific Coast. In California alone, there are about 80,000 farmers organized into co-operative marketing associations, each built around a particular commodity handling an aggregate of over $250,000,000 worth of farm products annually.

These associations cover perishable products, such as strawberries, pears, grapes, apples, oranges, lemons, milk and eggs; semi-perishable products, such as potatoes and storage eggs; relatively non-perishable products such as prunes, raisins, dried peaches and apricots; non-perishable products such as walnuts, almonds, small beans, lima beans, canned fruits, baled alfalfa, bottled honey, and grains.

Bear Stories for Bedtime

CHAPTER 109.
BILLY BEAR BECOMES A FORD EXPERT.
By Harvey Elliott.

"My name's Billy Bear. What's yours?"

Loretta Mincer had a party last night and me and Puds Simkins were invited on account of her being mad at us, and we was setting on Puds' front steps talking about how much we dident give a darn how many parties she had and whether we was invited or not, me saying, Wat do I care. Id rather be setting out heer eating the fresh air than setting in her old parlor pretending to be enjoying myself to be polite.

So would I, sed Puds. Im glad she didnt invite me, because if she had of I mite of went jest out of politeness and had a heck of a bum time.

Sure, me too, lets wawk past her house and laff rite out loud to show we consider its more of a joak than a party, I sed.

Well, we did, laffing like anything jest wen we got outside Loretta Mincers parlor, and all the fellows and gurls ran to the windows to see who was doing all the laffing and me and Puds laffed even louder and kep on wawking past as if we was so glad we wasent at the party that we couldent help laffing, and wen we got down to the corner Puds sed, Lets wawk back and do it agen.

And we wawked past agen and started to laff loud as anything, go ing. Haw haw haw haw haw haw and bending almost in half as if we had to on account of laffing so hard, and jest then wat came down on us but a lot of ice watter from the 2nd story window, and me and Puds quick stopped laffing and ran, and wen we got a litta ways away we stood agen me saying, I tell you lets wat, lets wawk past on the other side of the street and do it agen jest to prove we aint discouraged.

Which we did, going over to the other side of the street and laffing all our mite for about 2 minnits and then going back and setting on Puds steps agen, feeling a litta wetter but otherwise jest the same.

"Ho-nk!!"

"Haw, haw, haw," laughed Billy. "That's the same tune it sang when it was chasing me down the road."

Billy Bear then honked that Ford till he was tired. At first he laughed every time it honked, but after a while the fun wore off. Billy now knew how to turn on and off the lights and how to honk the horn, but he never learned how to start the engine.

As Billy started off he said, "Guess a fellow won't learn much in this world if he doesn't study things out for himself."
